Arlington

11 Advocate

C. S. PARKER & SON, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Devoted to the Local Interests of the Town,

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR. SINGLE COPIES 5 CENT

Vol. xli.

ARLINGTON, MASS., SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1912.

No. 4.

IF NEW YEAR CHANGES ARE contemplated in your firm name or telephone number, we ought to be notified at once.

The first issue of the 1912 Telephone Directory for Boston and Suburbs (including the North Shore) is almost ready for the press. It is to our mutual advantage to have these changes correctly listed.

Call Fort Hill 7600 (the Contract Department) free from any telephone in the Metropolitan District. We will do the rest.

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

GOOD-BYE PROFITS!

AH CKIM CKIM CKIM (KMXXX) MIXXX MIXX

Next Christmas is a long way off, and we do not care to carry over our left-over Novelties until then, so we are willing to let them go for less than cost, in order to make room for our Spring Stock.

This reduction in prices include all our Silverware, "Hull" Umbrellas, Toilet and Manicure Sets, (in Sterling, Ebony, and Quadruple Silver Plate), Clocks, etc.

This will be a saving to you of 1-3 off from the regular prices.

ALFRED E. MYERS Jeweler, Optometrist & Silversmith

Fine Watch Repairing

11 HANOVER STRFET

Two Doors above Marston's Restaurant

BOSTON, MASS. 💥

Beacon Street Cars Stop in Front of Door ZHHERRINGERUNGERUNGERUNGER STEINER STE

WILLIAM A. MULLER & CO.

INSURANCE Of EVERY Description

'18 Central Street - - Boston

Arlington Sea Food Market

211 BROADWAY

Will offer a complete line of Sea Food Products.

Imported Canned Fish, Crab Meats, Kippered Herring, P. & C. Sardines, Anchovies in Oil.

BLUE POINT OYSTERS. DUXBURY CLAMS.

L. R. GOODWIN

Telephone 139

F. A. YOUNG

ABOUT TOWN MATTERS IN ARLINGTON.

All natices of concerts, letures, entertainments, etc to which an admission fee is charged or from which a revenue is to be derived, must be paid for by the line at the regular advertising rates. =Patrolman F. Joseph Cahalin is con-flued to his home with a severe attack of =Mr. James Twohig, 9 Mill street, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia which just escaped being fatal.

=Miss Parker may be consulted in regard to millinery at her home, 12 Pelham terrace. Ladies and children's hats made

The annual meeting of the First-Universalist society will be held next Thursday evening, in the vestry of the church.

Supper at 6.30.

=Miss Alice Lancaster will be the soloist at the Universalist church on Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Masseck will preach on "The church of the future."

=We are indebted to Messrs. Geo. Y. Wellington & Son, also to Mr. Wm. A. Muller for handsome and convenient calendars for the New Year.

=Edw. H. H. Bartlett, the well known poster and calendar distributor, had to cancel his engagements this week, much to the regret of his patrons, owing to ill

=This (Friday) evening, at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Colman on Pleasant street, a musicale will be given by local artists for the benefit of the Symmes Arlington Hospital.

The annual meeting of the Universalist church occurs this evening, at 7.45, in the vestry of the church. The communion will be observed on Sunday af-celebrated at 8.

=Miss Grace Trow is spending the winter holiday vacation with her father, Mr. A. Winslow Trow of this town, and triends in New England. She is the French teacher at the old and popular Lady Jane Grey School for girls at Binghamton, N. Y.

=On Wednesday evening, Jan. 10, the Deputy Grand Master James P. Simpson, of Middlesex Lodge No. 17, and suite. It is hoped members will make a special effort to be present.

a sanatorium for patients addicted to liquor or drug habits. It is under the direction of Dr. Henry Hull and has been open since last April, so we are informed.

=Mr. and Mrs. Wallace F. Nickerson, of 205 Pleasant street, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKenzie, left Tuesday, of this week, for New York. They will be gone ten days. Messrs. McKenzie and Nickerson are partners in the engraving busietc., for 1912 were exceptionally fine.

=The program of music at First Baptist church, next Sabbath morning, is as follows: Organ, Andante Con Moto, by Guilmant; anthem, "Great is the Lord," Burdett; anthem, "Lord, how long wilt Thou forget me," Mendelssohn; offertory, Melodie, by MacDowell: anthem, "The Home Land," Macy; Organ, Verset, by evening, rendering the following selec- and care.

=Owing to the evening services, the tions: The Lord is God, by Trowbridge; Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church Consecration, by Lyman F. Brackett; has changed the hour of its Sunday evening devotional meeting to 6.15. All the note of the change.

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah, by W. O. Perkins; Now the day is over, by Barnby, and The Lord is my Shepherd.

Rev. Mr. Masseck will take, for his sub-

=Monday morning in St. Agnes' = Prof. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, of church the feast of the Circumcision was celebrated by three masses. Every mass ment of their daughter, Anne Louise, a "Christian Virtuea." It is "Courage." celebrated by three masses. Every mass ment of their daughter, Anne Louise, a was attended by very large numbers. student at Wellesley College, to Mr. The first mass was at 5.30, the second at Warren Eastman Robinson, of Arlington, 7, and the last mass, a high mass, was the sub-master in the Watertown High

=The funeral of Thomas H. Sweeney officers of Bethel Lodge No. 12, will be was held at his late residence, 84 Decatur and evening prayer at 7.30. The evening installed in Odd Fellows Hall, by Dist. street, Tuesday morning. The body was addresses on the Prayer Book will conmass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. George H. Quigley. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

=It does not seem to be generally known that the Robbins Spring Hotel, on Robbins road, has been converted into was married Monday to Miss Madeline Every member is asked to be present, as Fauvre of Indianapolis. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents and was witnessed by a number time. of Boston friends. Mr. Wiles is a wellknown attorney of Boston.

> near Court street on Mass. avenue, she changes. slipped and fell. Medical assistance was called, and later she was able to go to =Mrs. Sarah P. Winn and her sister, Miss Daniels, have been spending the holidays and a week or more with their sister, Mrs. Edwin Robbins, at her spacious residence on Eastern avenue, while =Evening services will be resumed at Mrs. Nathan Robbin vis visiting her New the Universalist church next Sunday eve- York relatives. Mrs. Robbins' younger ning, at 7.30. The America Male Quartet, son, Nathan, and wife make their home of Boston, will furnish the music of the with her and are devoted to her comfort

Royal Electric Mill.

Always Fresh Ground.

=Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Clifford, of matronized by Mrs. W. K. Cook and Mrs. Arlington, announce the engagement of Albert H. Goodwin, both in handsome their daughter, Irene Merrill, to Warren lingerie dresses. It was a pretty party Arthur Godbold, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. and especially enjoyed, as it was a re-union for many who were home for the Christmas holidays.

=The next regular meeting of St. Agnes Court, D. of I., will be held in K. of C. Hall, on Monday evening, January =The music for Sunday, Jan. 7, at Pleasant street Cong'l church, will include anthem, "Behold, God is my Salvation," Rogers; quartet, "O Bread of Life from Heaven," Franck; response, "Holy Night." M. Haydn.

Ject, "The Showing-up of Diameter of the Showing-up of C. Hall, on Monday evening, January 8. Augustus F. Crowley, Esq. will be the lecturer of the evening. He will speak on "Daniel O'Connell."

Try and be present. The meeting is called at half past-seven.

The subject for the Endeavor meeting, January 8. Augustus F. Crowley, Esq. will be the lecturer of the evening. The subject for the Endeavor meeting is called at half past-seven.

The leader is the president of the society, Miss Dorothea Rowse.

=Services at the St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday will consist of a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.45, taken to St. Agnes' church, where a high | tinue until Lent, the subject for this week being "The Litany."

=The annual meeting of the Woman's Aid Asso'n of Symmes Arlington Hospi-= The report comes to us that Thomas tal, will be held in Associates Hall, Tues-M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. there is to be an election of officers and a general discussion of hospital interests. Membership dues may be paid at that =Mr. Charles W. Ilsley of Wells, Me., is visiting his children resident of this on the building saved a considerable part town, where he was for many years in of the property. Hose No. 1 and Hook ports that Mrs. Patrick Kelley of Mt. the ice business. He finds our town rap- & Ladder also reported at the call. The Vernon street, slipped on the icy side-walk Sunday and fractured a wrist. not a man now conducting business that stove in the wash room of the barn. The ness. Their Christmas cards, calendars, Mrs. Kelley was on her way to attend was in business when he started in, in contents of the barn were removed and services in St. Agnes' church, and when 1870. Forty-two years works many great

> =The annual meeting of the Orthodox Congregational church will be held in the haps more. vestry on Thursday evening, January 11. A supper will be served at 6.30 o'clock, followed by a business meeting, with a ton, being, we think, the first of the kind roll-call. It is important that every memerate ever held here, was held in the Unitarian sent out should respond by their presence, if possible.

=Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barker, who have recently moved into their attractive new home at 26 Lombard road, celebrated the New Year with a house-warming, which was greatly enjoyed by their friends, who admired the new house and all of its apduring the evening under the direction of caterer N. J. Hardy.

=Mr. Arthur Kallom, principal of Rus-sell grammar school, underwent the surgical operation for appendicitis at a Boston Hospital, on Thursday of last week. Mr. Kallom took the case in hand before it became critical and his speedy and Russell school, where he is highly regarded by teachers and pupils.

and Gladys Richardson, all memoers of at the piano. Fruit punch was served throughout the evening. The party was

Notice is hereby given that a special Town Meeting for the transaction of town business

TOWN HALL, Arlington

Monday, January 8th, 1912

at 7.30 o'clock, P. M.

when the articles of the Town Warrent, issued for that date will be acted on in due form. This notice is printed and distributed in accor-

For Sale to the Highest Bidder

WHAT YOU DON'T SEE

The manure from 15 horses at Almshouse

we may have just what you want, as

Page & Shaw's Candies

Oliver Typewriter and supplies, and all the magazines.

F P DYER'S

ARLINCTON NEWS DEPOT.

Yoyers Cooking Bags

THOMAS J. ROBINSON, Clerk.

in our store, ask for,

contained in Warrent, will be held in

=The officers of W. R. C. No. 43, and of Camp No. 45, Sons of Veterans, will be publicly installed in Grand Army Hall, next Monday evening, Jan. 15th, at quarter of eight. Mrs. Mellie F. Libbey, of Lynn, will install the ladles and Past Division Com. Wm. A. Stevens of this town the officers of the Camp. Refreshments are to be served and it is to be a pleasant occasion in all respects.

=Mr. Louis Berthrong, son of comrade Henry W. Berthrong of this town, was married at Mansfield on Saturday, Dec. 30, at the home of the bride's parents, 42 Broad street, of that city. The bride was Helen Clifton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Gray. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Thompson, rector of the Mansfield Episcopal church. The couple will be at home to their friends, after March 1, at 99 Orchard street, Somerville. Friends here offer sincere felici-

= l'hursday forenoon, at nine-forty, an alarm was rung in from Box 46. The fire was at the barn on the farm of J. W. Kennedy, on Pine street. The auto com bination was early on the scene and the promptness in getting two lines of hose the damage was chiefly to the room where the fire occurred and to some mate and hot bed sash. Possibly the damage will amount to three hundred dollars and per-

=A service somewhat novel in Arlingever held here, was held in the Unitarian ber of the church receiving the invitation church on Sunday, at five o'clock. It consisted of twenty-five minutes of organ music, which included the Gloria of Mozart's Twelfth Mass and Handel's Largo, and one or two brief prayers read by Mr. Gill, the service concluding at five-thirty. The church was dimly lighted. The bad weather prevented a large attendance, but enough were present to show that such a service is appreciated, and they will be held once a month, the next coming on Jan. 28. Mr. E. S. Fessenden was the organist on Sunday.

=In accordance with the announce-ment made by the Rev. Frederic Gill from the pulpit some weeks ago, he will on Sunday morning begin a series of serit became critical and his speedy and complete recovery is anticipated within the month. His absence is felt at the Russell school, where he is highly restates the purpose for which the church exists, as follows: "In the love of truth, =Misses Marjorie S. Gott, Anna Barnes and the spirit of Jesus, we unite for the worship of God and the service of man." the class 1910, A. H. S., gave a dancing party Saturday evening last, in Adelphian Hall, which was attended by some fifteen 10.40. In the evening, at seven o clock, couples which included college friends from Bowdoin, Amherst and Dartmouth, besides members of the class of which in Jesus." This address will be pre-The coffee that will please the the young ladies were members. Music paratory to the sermon on "The Spirit of most critical taste—rich, smooth and son and Harry Dadmun, who took turns Sunday morning, and will deal with the history of Unitarian thought in New England. To these services the public is heartily invited.

=Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. MacFarland celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage on Saturday evening, Dec. 30th, at their home, 14 Swan place, Arlington.
Many friends from surrounding towns were present and many beautiful presents received. A collation was served, and musical and vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. I. Bently, of Lynn, and Miss Ethel MacFarland and Catherine Armstrong of Arlington. Mr. MacFarland then made an address, followed by Mr. John W. White, of Arlington, and Mr. Chas. J. Abbott of Stoneham, which were enjoyed. Mrs. MacFarland voiced the sentiments of the occasion in an original poem which made a hit. All of the friends then departed for their bares. friends then departed for their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacFarland many happy days to follow. Samuel G. MacFarland and Amy Gertrude Floyd were married by Rev. George A. Tewksbury, pastor of Pilgrin Congregational church, Cambridge, all being residents of that city at that time. dance with a vote of the town, passed at the Hall the recently elected officers of Court Pride, Foresters of America, were installed. The meeting was attended by a very large number, including members Stable for year 1912. Bids must be in hands of from other courts. After the routine Board of Public Works on or before Jan. 8, 1912.

Per order,

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS. were Porter Dunlap, C. R.; Arthur J. Hendrick, S. C. R.; John F. Sullivan, recording secretary; Daniel M. Daley, financial secretary; T. Arthur Nolan, S. W.; P. Fairbanks, S. W.; John J. Donawe carry a full line of Stationery, also are the only agents handling the lected chief ranger gave a short address, and during the evening addresses were made by Messrs. Mitchell, Alyward, Patrick Cavanaugh and Geo. Brady, the latter chairman of the South Middlesex board of deputies.

> =Next Friday evening, Jan. 12. at Arlington Baptist church, the New England Chapter of American Guild of Organists will present a musical program of high class under the supervision of Mr. Charles S. Johnson, organist of the church. The object of the Guild is the advancement of the cause of worthy church music and this organ concert will give the several organists who will assist Prof. Johnson an opportunity to illustrate this worthy aim, as the organ is one of the finest in this section. No admis-delicious.

Continued on 8th page.

YERXA & YERXA

C O 19 19 10 10

Steel cut by our

A Keep Klean Tooth Brush

and a can of tooth powder for

A OUARTER WORTH FIFTY CENTS

Other tooth brushes from ten cents to fifty cents

Whittemore Pharmacy ARLINGTON CENT CENTRE Town Meeting of Dec. 1st, 1902.

Mansfield Crackers

SKATES

All grades and prices From 50c to $4.50

Barney Berry and W. S.

Skates Sharpened 15c Straps and Hockey Sticks.

WETHERBEE BROS.

480 Mass. Avenue

Tel. 414L

Arlington, Mass

DOLLS DRESSED IN CRICHETED GARMENTS BABIES, PICKANIVIES, AND OTHERS.
PRICE 75 CENTS
ALSO LESSONS IN IRISH LACE.

ROSE STUDIO Box 19, Arlington Heights, Mass.

Woman's World

Mrs. Helen Britton, Owner Big Baseball Club.

@ 1911, by American Press Association. MRS. HELEN BRITTON.

Mrs. Helen Britton of Cleveland, O. has the distinction of being the only woman owner of a big baseball club in this country and possibly in the world. This legacy-the St. Louis National league baseball club-she inherited from her father and uncle. And she is the first woman entitled to sit in a meeting of the National league, an organization devoted to the interests of

The feminine manager of a baseball team, according to preconceived ideas, should be a heroic specimen of womanhood, one of the man tailored kind, with stiff cuffs, a four-in-hand and a stride. But Mrs. Britton is of an altogether different type, for her gowns are the last word in smartness, and she carries them with a grace to do them full justice. The owner of the Cardinals is a clear skinned, dark haired. symmetrical little woman, with sparkling eyes and a wealth of vivac-

When asked how her club got its name Mrs. Britton replied "that red was her favorite color. I love to wear it and do most of the time just as a touch of allegiance. But my father selected the name Cardinals because it was his pet color. My husband is fond of it too. Indeed, we might be called a cardinal chorus, especially when a Cardinal knocks a home run."

Although Mrs. Britton never misses a ball game unless staying away is absolutely necessary, she is nothing of an all around "sport," but extremestrong, handsome husband says "that when it comes to keeping home comfortable and happy the presiding gentus of the St. Louis team is a pennant winner." Two healthy, wholesome children, a boy and a girl, attest her skill in mothercraft. The boy, his mother says, is a regular child leader, and to show that he is going to follow in the family footsteps he has already organized a league among his playmates and captains the winning team. The wee daughter is too tiny to be entered as a "fan," but certain tendencies point toward her becoming a baseball girl through and through, like her mother.

Mrs. Britton is a fine example of how it is possible for a woman to pursue beauty, business, homemaking and pleasure at once and be a success in all the roles.

Season's "Smart" Color Is Pink Red. At last the season's smartest color has been settled on. It does not happen once in a decade that the women of the so called smart set and the women who set the fashions for the inner zircle of society's exclusive few agree upon the season's color. They have done so this year, however, and it is a pink red. It runs through a gamut of shades from deep coral down to palest flame, almost yellow. It may be bright cerise or old fashioned "light red," but It must escape being a regular red by several shades. It is becoming alike to blonds and brunettes, and it adapts itself to the modern wonders of frock making where layer of gossamer is laid over layer of gossamer, beading. embroidery, fringe and metal thread. It shimmers through soft grays and cream and slatey blues. It dashes suddenly out into view in startling places. It can be wrought into wonderful sunset and dawn effects, and it has the advantage of combining with black in a way to give distinction. Without a doubt the season's favorite color has been well chosen this year.

Mrs. Browning's Sonnets. They say Mrs. Browning showed her husband with much diffidence the sonnets she had written in celebration of her love. "Sonnets From the Portuguese," she called them, incorporating in the title a love name he had for her. for he termed her the Portuguese because of her dark skin and eyes. Faulty, it must be confessed, these sonnets are, hardly finished here and there one might be tempted to say. but they are as spontaneous as the song of morning birds, as essentially true as the word we speak at unexpected meeting.

Trunk Trays.

Trunks have improved along with everything else in this progressive age. The trunk with one tray is a rarity, and most trunks are made with five or six trays. There is such a demand for trays that they are sold separately and can be added to any trunk when-

Cooked Right

That's why three generations have eaten H-Othe only oatme al steamcooked 2 hours in the mill.

It's our special process of cooking it that brings out and retains for you the fine oat flavor.

It's our special cooking that makes H-O Oatmeal so digestible none of the nourishment is lost.

- and SAVES fully 2 hours of your time and fuel, for H-O is all ready to serve when you cook it only 20 minutes.

One package makes breakfast for the whole family for 6 days. Try H-O today.

H - O of an all around "sport," but extremely domestic in her tastes, and her Is For Sale by

N. T. NEILSON, YERXA & YERXA. WM. WHYTAL & SON, W. K. HUTCHINSON, J. O. HOLT, THOMAS GREEN.

E. REARDON FLORIST

895 Mass. Avenue CUT FLOWERS FUNERAL4DESIGNS WEDDING DECORATIONS VIOLETS IN THEIR SEASON TELEPHONE Arlington 96-W

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, 88.

To the heirs-at-law, and all persons interested in the estate of WARREN W. RAWSON, late of Arlington, in said County of Middlesex, deceased, testate.

Whereas Herbert W. Rawson and Sarah E. whereas Herbert W. Rawson and Sarah E. Rawson, executors of the will of said deceased, have presented their petition for authority to mortgage certain real estate therein described, of the estate of said deceased, to raise the sum of forty thousand dollars, for the purposes of paying the remaining indebtedness of said deceased and the cash legacies mentioned in said

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the ninth day of January, A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to

A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forencon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington ADVOCATE, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

W. E. ROGERS,

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of WARREN E. LOCKE, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate, by Herbert G. Locke, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the tenth day of January, A.D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forencon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington Minuteman, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

ROMANCE OF A SHOVEL

An Idea That Won a Fortune For Railway Laborer.

The simplest labor saving device may quite possibly be worth a fortune. One day a good many years ago a number of men were at work on the roadbed of a line of railway in course of construction between Birmingham and Manchester. They were cutting through a hill and moving the material by loosening it with picks, shoveling it into barrows and wheeling it away. The shovels they were using were known as Irish shovels, with a square cornered blade about fifteen inches long. The work progressed but slowly, and the subcontractor in charge rebuked his workmen for not making quicker progress. One of them replied that if he would grind off the corners of the shovels it would be easier to get them into the earth, and, consequently, they would be able to work more quickly.

The contractor ridiculed the idea. which he considered a piece of insolence on the part of the workman, but the navvy was quite in earnest and not easily discouraged. When the work was completed he discussed the matter with a friend of his at Sheffield. who persuaded an ironmonger he knew to make a dozen or so as an experiment. The tools were offered to a large contractor, who promised to let some of his men use the new shovels and report results.

About a week afterward the contractor returned with the information that his men were fairly quarreling as to who should use the new tools, some arriving to work a quarter of an hour before time in order to be there first when the ool box was opened. The navvy's suggestion had proved a good one. A patent was secured and an agreement made between the navvy, the manufacturer and the contractor. When the navvy died he left a fortune of over £65,000, the proceeds from royalties on the manufacture of shovels under his patent. - Pearson's Weekly.

DEATHBED SCENES.

And the Question of Prolonging Life to Its Utmost Limit.

Even the lengthening of a man's life by a day may make death easier by giving him the opportunity of soothing a guilty conscience, of signing a will, of redressing an injustice, of healing a breach of friendship the memory of which might imbitter another life, of saying farewell to a son or daughter who had come in haste from a great distance. Any one who has seen deathbeds knows how anxieties of this sort may darken the last hours and how their removal may reconcile the sufferer to death. It seems to us that this talk of the right to die and the wrongdoing of doctors in seeking to prolong a life that is bunging by a thread springs from the unwholesome sentimentalism and the inevitable accompaniment of selfishness which are among the unhappy notes of the present time.

To the older writers the death agony was the final struggle of the soul leaving the body, and by a confusion of thought due to the acquired meaning of the word it has come to be generally believed that the parting of the spiritual from the material part of man is painful. Those whose lot it has been to stand at many deathbeds know that this is not the case. Sir William Osler says that he has careful records of about 600 deathbeds, studied particularly with reference to the modes of dying and the sensations of the dying. Of these ninety suffered bodily pain or distress of one sort or another, eleven showed mental apprehension, two positive terror, one expressed spiritual exaltation, one bitter remorse. The great majority gave no sign one way or the other.-British Medical Journal.

Chinese Criminal Law.

Curiously like the Mosaic and Roman customs, the fixed laws of China are carved in stone and set up in the streets. Chinese criminal law, which is founded on the "Chau Kung." or ritual of Chau, is based upon the accused confessing, and no punishment can ensue until this is brought about. Before the condemned are decapitated they are offered all the samschu they desire to drink, and in most cases they are allowed to choose whether they will ride in a ricksha or be carried in a sedan -J. S. Thomson's "The Chi-

Severing Old Ties

Willie was sent out by his mother to the woodshed to saw and split some stove wood out of a pile of old railroad ties. Going outdoors shortly after, she found the youth sitting on the sawhorse with his head bowed down in his hands. She asked her hopeful why he didn't keep at his work.

"My dear mother." he replied with much feeling. "I find it so hard, so very hard, to sever old ties."-Lippincott's.

Plenty of Purpose.

"I have here a poem." "Is it a poem of any serious purpose?" inquired the editor of the Highbrow Magazine.

"It is, sir. It was written to pay my board bill with."-Kansas City Jour Humility.

If thou wouldst find much favor and peace with God and man be very low in thine own eyes. Forgive thyself little and others much.-Archbishop Leighton

His Protest.

Mrs Benham-Before you married me you said that I was a queen. Benham-Well, I no longer believe in a monarchical form of government. Chicago News.

Dorothy Donnelly in "The Princess of Zim-Zim" at Plymouth Theatre, Boston.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, 88.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of JOHN N. LACEY, late of whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Edward N. Lacey, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fifteenth day of January, A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington ADVOCATE, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court this twenty-sixth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

dred and eleven. W. E. ROGERS, Register.

REPORT OF THE CONDILLON

The First National Bank OF ARLINGTON.

at Arlington, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, Dec. 5, 1911.

Loans and discounts, $424,698.44 Overdrafts, secured and unsecured, U.S. Bonds to secure circulation Bonds, securities, etc., Due from State and Private Banks and Bankers, 109,313.75 Trust Companies, and Saving Banks, Due from approved reserve agents, Notes of other National Banks, Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents, Lawful money reserve in bank, viz:

Specie, 30,130.8
Legal-tender notes, 5,530.6
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer,
(5 per cent of circulation) $644,426.62

LIABILITIES. Capital stock paid in Surplus fund, Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid, 14,993.89

National Bank notes outstanding, 11,895.60
Due to State and Private Banks and Bankers 235.64 Due to Trust Companies and Savings Banks, 20,650.8, Individual deposits subject to check, 496,659.1; 496,652.15

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX, Sa.

I, John A. Easton, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. JOHN A. EASTON, Cashier

E. NELSON BLAKE, JAMES A. BAILEY, JR., HENRY HORNBLOWER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day FRANK Y. WELLINGTON, LEXINGTON, Mass., Nov. 28, 1911. To the Middlesex County Commissioners :-Respectfully represent the undersigned inhabitants of the town of Lexington in said County, that the lines of Massachusetts avenue in said Lexington should be relocated from the junction of said Avenue with Woburn street northwesterly to its junction with Bedford street at the common, particularly on the northeasterly side thereof.

WHEREFORE WE PRAY you will relocate said Avenue.

FRANK D, PEIRCE, HENRY A. C. WOODWARD, W. H. WHITAKER, CHAS. H. FRANKS, ALEX. M. TUCKER, EDWIN B. WORTHEN, H. C. VALENTINE.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS MIDDLESEX, 88.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners for the County of Middlesex, at Lowell, in said County, on the first Tuesday of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, to wit, by adjournment at Cambridge, on the twelfth day of December, A. D., 1911.

On the foregoing petition, Ordered, that the Sheriff of said County, or his Deputy, give notice to all persons and corporations interested therein, that said Commissioners will meet for the purpose of viewing the premises and hearing the parties at the Selectmen's room in Lexington, in said County, on Friday, the twen y-sixth day of January, next, at 10.30 o'clock in the foregon, by serving the Clock of the wild terms. day of January, next, at 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon, by serving the Clerk of the said town of Lexington with a copy of said petition and of this order thereon, thirty days at least before said view, and by publishing the same in the Lexington MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper printed in said County, three weeks successively, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said view, and also by posting the same in two public places in the said town of Lexington, fourteen days before said view; and that he make return of his doings herein, to said Commissioners, at the time and place fixed for said view and hearing.

view and hearing. FREDERIC L. PUTNAM, Ass't Clerk.

Copy of petition and order thereon.

Attest

FREDERIC L. PUTNAM, Ass't Clerk. A true copy of the petition and order the Attest, BARTHOLOMEW M. YOUNG,
Deputy Sheriff,

He Was a Lovely Specimen For Fair Weather.

By IZOLA FORRESTER.

"Wait," laughed Jolly Allan, prophet ically wagging his forefinger at the two figures in the hammock. "Just you girls wait until the inevitable man shows up and see where your friendship will be. Pouf! Bing! Up in smoke."

"There have been men"- began Irene loftily.

"I said the inevitable man," protest ed Jolly-"the man, the right and only one. I know there have been. Wasn't I one of them last year? But, honest, it will do me a world of good to see the right one come along and have both of you girls fall in love with himyour tastes are so similar, you know. He dodged the cushion that whizzed from the hummock in his direction dexterously. "And then see the tumble in girl loyalty. You won't speak to each other, and every time the other one goes by with the inevitable man the one that's frozen out will say

'Cat.' " "Jolly, there is a limit, you know, even to your imagination." Dorothy Arnold rose from the hammock and stood a moment, her arms upraised as she fastened in some refractory hairpins. They were pretty arms, plump, Arlington, in said County, deceased, tanned and bare to the elbows. So was their owner pretty-the very prettiest girl at Northern Lights except one, and that one her closest friend. Irene Nethersby.

> It was nearly a month since the two girls had come to the inn at Northern Lights to spend their summer vacation. The Lights was not a fashionable re sort, strictly speaking, its guests and their doings were not chronicled in the Sunday papers, but to those who knew and loved it it had beauties far beyoud Newport or Atlantic City. Perch ed high on the pine crested bluff over looking the sea was the inn. Winding woodland paths led to it from the shore, and back in the hills were trout brooks and deep glens. Long before the inn and its satellite cottages had been there the lighthouse had held its own upon the rocks of the bluff, and it was the light from its lamps which had given the north point of Shelter island its name. Northern Lights.

It was an odd summer crowd that filled the inn-students resting, students studying, people in search of peace above all-and yet about these 77-34 steady guests, who came year in and year out, there played perpetually the merry summer butterflies, who came and went with the weekly steamer.

> Johy Allan was a permanent fixture As son of the owner of Northern Lights at large he occupied a privileged position. But even with Dorothy's dark eyes gazing at him in haughty disapproval he did not retract one word.

"Just wait." he said. "Last year h didn't come, but he will this time." Arm in arm the two girls walked leisurely down one of the cliff paths that led to the boat landing. Both were tall, both slender and golden hair ed as sisters, but Dorothy's eyes were dark and grave, and Irene's were blue as the bluebells that grew in the rock crannies at her feet. They were cous ins and college mates as well. Every year only drew them nearer together and made their friendship more sure. and with all their little love affairs there had never been a shadow of rivalry. Halfway down the bluff the path made a turn, and a rustic bench had been built there. Kneeling on it, the girls leaned their elbows on the back and watched the White Queen steam smoothly to the dock and disembark her usual quota of city deserters.

It was sunset, and the sea lay silent and rippleless, stained crimson and purple from the sun's rays. Most of the passengers were taking the main road up to the inn. Only one figure came toward them, a figure in gray flannel, and as he came he whistled The girls watched him idly, disinterestedly, without moving from their position. Men were common at the Lights, even men in gray flannels who whistled. But as he came up the path and faced them at the turn they realized that this man was different It wasn't anything special about himhe was merely a strapping, healthy youngster, clear eyed, clean shaven. with lips ready to whistle or smile and brown hair that waved above his tanned forehead-but it was the quick. frankly astonished look in his eyes that disarmed them as he glanced from one face to the other, a look that spoke volumes, but volumes with a double dedication. "Is this the right way to the inn?"

Dorothy did not answer. After that first look in the stranger's eves she had looked out at the crimson sen Irene flushed slowly and pointed up the path. "It is up there where the gray tow ers are." she said, and he lifted his gray traveling cap and went on, but he did not whistle. For a few minutes neither girl spoke.

Then Irene sighed, half to herself, and slipped her arm around her cousin's the one? You know what Jolly saidthe inevitable man." And Dorothy pushed back her hair fairs. will thus vanish.-London Globe.

with a quick, hair impatient gesture as she turned from the sea. "It is late," she said. "Yes; it would be odd if he were the one." As Jolly said a week later, he was it all right. And gradually Jolly's smile deepened, and he went about with his hands in his white duck pockets, wearing a mystical look of wisdom beyond mortal ken, for his prophecy was coming true.

Dudley Graham was the stranger's name. Jolly exulted in it. It couldn't have been better. And when, after a couple of days, Dudley showed himself possessed of an unlimited "wad" to boot and a disposition to scatter it Jolly's admiration changed to respect, and he hoped Dudley's choice would fall on Dorothy, because for himself he always had preferred blue eyes.

But Dudley apparently had no choice. The cousins were the prettiest girls at the Lights; therefore he made love to both of them with absolute impartiality. And he was an artist at lovemaking-no ordinary piazza mooning or woodland strolls, but at daybreak, when all the world lay in a bridal veil of pearl and diamond, he would take the girls out for a sail or send them up great clusters of forest flowers to say good morning for him.

"Which one?" asked Jolly, and every one at the Lights echoed the question. Perhaps no one thought it oftener than the girls themselves. Gradually they drew apart. There was no open quarrel, nothing to gossip over, but all the old sweet comradeship was broken, and except when Dudley was with them they lived alone.

To Dorothy it was a wonderful thing, this strange new love, something not to be breathed of, and yet her eyes never met Graham's that she did not feel vaguely sorry for Irene. And Irene, winsome, gay hearted, was oddly quiet and restrained these days, and, hearing Graham's voice in her ears as they two bent over the dipping sail, she felt her heart ache for poor Perothy.

And then, as Jolly called it ever after, there came the day of decision. It was a gray day, threatening, squally, bringing with it a premature tang of September chill. Graham was going out in his yacht, the Lorelie. As he came down the steps of the piazza Dorothy joined him, tall and slender, in her raincoat and hatless.

Graham hesitated and glanced to where Irene stood.

"Afraid?" he asked laughingly, and she took the challenge, not because of his words, but because of Dorothy and her silence.

"There's a storm coming," called Jolly. "I'll get the life savers ready to go out after you."

It was only a jest, and half an hour later Jolly, in his big hearted, rough way, would have given all he owned to Il it back, for out on the the little white winged yacht swirled and dipped as the storm swept down on it and when the darkness had lifted there was a cry from those watching from the inn, and down at the little white life saving station below the lighthouse they were pushing out the lifeboat. Keel up, the Lorelie drifted, but before the lifeboat reached it they found a figure swimming for shore, a hearty. strong, athletic youngster, one Dudley Graham, who had kept his presence of mind and resolved to save said Dudley Graham's sweet life at all hazards. "Go ahead," called Tom Hardy, the captain of the crew to him. "Go ahead; you're doing finely. Keep it up. We wouldn't stop you for the world."

And they left him swimming for shore and made straight for the overturned yacht, where two girls held each other above the peril of the sea.

"Take Irene first," said Dorothy. "Dolly first." gasped Irene as Tom lifted her into the boat.

The next morning Jolly sat on the piazza smiling buoyantly to two figures in the hammock. "He went on the early boat," he said blithely. "Congratulations. But was not he a really lovely specimen? For fair weather, I mean. Wasn't be"-"Jolly," interposed Dorothy, "even the inevitable can be postponed, can't it? We-Irene and I-have decided that our inevitable man must be twins."

The Word "Bogus."

The word "bogus" is said by Dr. Ogilvie to be derived from Boghese, the name of a notorious American swindler who about the year 1835 flooded the western and southwestern states with counterfeit bills, sham mortgages and such like. Others connect the word with "bogie," a scarecrow or goblin, and so applied to anything fictitious or chimerical. Lowell in the "Biglow Papers" says, "I more than suspect the word to be a corruption of the French bagasse." This bagasse was the sugar cane as delivered in its dry, crushed state from the mill, called also cane trash, and fit only for burning, being thus synonymous with useless rubbish. Again, according to Brewer, there is in French argot, or thieves' slang, a word, bogue, which signifies the rind of a green chestnut or the case of a watch, and this also brings us to the idea of an outward seeming without any solid and reputable foundation.

revolutionaries to obliterate altogether

Chinese Names.

It is apparently the intention of the the old distinctions between Chinaman and Manchu. One of these was that whereas a Chinaman had three names a Manchu had two. Yuan Shih Kai. for example, is proved a Chinaman by his triple name, whereas the members of the late ministry had dual names and were thus proclaimed Manchus. It is now decreed that the Manchu is to "Dolly, wouldn't it be odd if he were acquire a third name, and the old distinction, which was often helpful to the European student of Chinese af-

A VARIEGATED MENU.

From the Italian Point of View Only However.

In the downtown district of Chicago there is a restaurant which makes a specialty of serving a business men's luncheon at an unusually low price, the meal consisting of meat, a cup of coffee and a side dish of vegetables.

One of the customers of the place became indignant because macaroni had been served as a side dish every day for a week. Calling the manager, the aggrieved customer said:

"John, you have macaroni here too often, and it"-"You are right, sir; quite right," agreed the manager. "I don't want to pose as a kicker," explained the customer, "but"-"Say no more about it, I beg." entreated the manager. "I'll have it changed at once." Then be called to the head waiter and said: "Tell the chef he has macaroni too often. Tomorrow we will make a change. We will have spaghetti."-Popular Magazine. Obliterating the Color Line.

Poindexter was Michael's understudy and first assistant gardener. The latter, a jovial Irishman, was above the average in many ways and was superintendent of the lawn and general utility man about the place. Fond of a joke, he could appreciate a good one even at his own expense.

There was no question whatever as to the nationality of Michael's Senegambian cohort, as he was called. The word "black" did not do justice to Poindexter's complexion.

One day Michael said to him, "Poindexter, they say if ye give a nigger a watermelon to eat he can lie in the hottest sun all day and never get sunstruck, nor even feel the heat.'

"No, suh; no, suh. Dat ain' so!" expostulated Poindexter. "De sun affecks niggers jes' de same as it does you or me."-Woman's Home Companton.

The Weaker Sex. Woman is noted for her curiosity, but she never buys foil wrapped cigars.

She is noted for her love of trading stamps, but she doesn't buy off-brand can traveler. tobacco to obtain the profit sharing certificates She is ridiculed for her fondness for bargains, but she doesn't play the penny machines. She is said to be foolish about dress, but she isn't addicted to the wearing of no-space collars. She plays bridge, but the roulette wheel is not one of her failings She is unwise, but it is generally the man who proposes marriage.

She can't see a joke, but she isn't one.-Judge.

Dramatic Note, "Myrtle is next door to being on the stage."

"Has she quit the notion counter?" "Yes, and now she's cashier in a moving picture show. Ain't it funny how some people get ahead in the world!"-Buffalo Express.

Speaking of the Irish Players-L. Doyle, 2b. McInnes, 1b. Q'Toole, p. Moriarity, 3b. Sweeney, c.

Doolan, ss. Donlin, cf. Murphy, rf. Magee, lf. McGraw, m'gr.

-New York Mail. No Comments From Hubby.
"What a freakish hat, Mabel! What do you suppose your husband will say when he sees it?"

"He won't dare say a word. He's wearing one of those fuzzy felt things himself."-Detroit Free Press.

Immaterial.

"I want a five cent loaf of bread." White or brown?" Either will do; it's for a blind man." -Fliegende Blatter.

Honors. Oustomer-I didn't see as your car won any prize in that race. What are you call him Necessity?" you blowing about?

Auto Dealer-Sir, we had a higher kers Statesman. percentage of drivers finish alive than any other firm!-Puck.

Jill of All Trades. She-Maud is very versatile. Not will they be made one?-Boston Tranonly can she write a poem, but she scripe. can also make a pudding. He-I sincerely hope her puddings An evil speaker only wants an op-

Transcript.

LIFE ON A BOER FARM.

The House a Chamber of Horrors, the Housewife Hopelessly Dull. An American woman traveling in South Africa was detained by floods and compelled to spend a month on a Boer farm. "The first night's monotony," she writes, "was broken by the roaring of the ostriches under our window. We thought it was a tame ion. "The farmer and his family lived chiefly on sour bread and sour skimmilk, and I was therefore hungry most of the time, and the ripe figs hanging in clusters were pretty alluring. After pushing back the skin of the fig and enjoying the soft fruit, with its tropical taste, I had a refreshing night's sleep, only to awaken in the morning pretty well scared, for my tongue was so swollen and black that I could not talk.

"The Boer wife laughed and enjoyed my discomfort and explained that the skin of the fig had numerous fine thorns and I had not been careful to remove them when eating.

"When I told the farmer's wife that I liked buttermilk in quantity I noticed that I had a cupful or so given me, but she threw it by the pailful to the pigs. They were of far more consequence to her than I, for they would stay longer with her and were her familiars. I was not.

"Then, again, when I was hungry for butter on my bread a white, clammy substance made from sheep's tail fat was handed to me, and I could not allow the farmer's wife to see me quiver. She sold her butter in the village close by at 75 cents a pound, more or less. Sour bread and green strawberries (plenty of them) were considered good companying picture: enough.

wealthiest of their kind. There was Java, where it frequently attains a not a ripple of fun or exuberant life height of six or eight inches. I tried in anything but the live stock. Con- to photograph it by time exposure, but versation was a dead language—un- failed, for the reason that it grew so known.

cepting their destiny with deep still- The accompanying photograph was acness. The wife gives up her strength cordingly taken by 'quick exposure,' alto the limit, and dies after giving birth most a snapshot." to a dozen or more children, to make This statement was sent to Profesway for wife No. 2, who gives another sor Charles H. Peck. Albany, N. Y., dozen children to her country. Her an expert on fungous growths, and he adobe house, with its dirt floor made replies: of ant hill clay mixed with beef gall, is a chamber of horrors to an Ameri- of development of the phalloid fungus eighteen children of all sizes to help at first thought too great to be credihim. A Kaffir as an employee is unde- ble. Nevertheless these fungi grow pendable as the winds that blow. Yet very rapidly when they have begun that Kaffir is the hired man in the to elongate their stems. In Mr. C. G. mines and elsewhere in South Africa. The white man as a day laborer is a general failure. He cannot be worked in droves like the Kaffir from the interior, whose language, in clicks and vowel sounds, is hardly human.

seldom met an aged Boer of the old stock. Oom Paul Kruger, who was seventy-five years old when he died, was an exception. Hatred toward the uitlander and the lust for gold and power were what kept the fires of life burning at white heat within him."-Health Culture.

Oratory No Longer Soars.

"Oratory is a lost art," said a Cleveland man the other day. "I used to go down to the courts just to hear the lurid speeches. Nothing doing in that line any more. The lawyers do not talk about flowers, rainbows and sunbeams today.

"There was a lawyer in Cleveland years ago-Bill Robinson was his name -whose addresses to a jury always attracted a crowd. I will forever remember one of his sentences. The man he was fighting in the suit had a reputation as something of a miser.

"'Who is this man-who is he?' thundered Robinson, 'You know and I know that he boils his potatoes in widows' tears.'

"This phrase caught the jury, and Robinson won his case, but one does not hear any such 'oratory' as that nowadays."—Case and Comment.

The Real Trouble.

"Oh, doctor," sighed the patient, "I am so glad you have come. I feel dreadful, and I don't know what in the world is the matter with me. My husband says it is nothing but nervous indigestion, but his mother is positive I am going to have appendicitis, and my mother declares I have intermittent fever, and my sister says it looks to her like creeping paralysis, and Aunt Henrietta says I've got malaria. What do you think I've got, doctor?"

"Well," frowns the physician, "from these symptoms I should say offhand that you have too many relatives."-Chicago Post.

Dancing and Kissing. The old time ballroom smacked of the kiss. Without it the dance was incomplete. It was claimed as a right. And given freely. The very idea of strike, as these lines foretold:

But some reply, What foole would daunce If that when daunce is doone He may not have at ladye's lips That which in daunce he woon?

-London Tatler. Jolting His Lawyer. Church-What was the name you called your lawyer?

Gotham-Necessity. "But that's a funny name. Why do "Because he knows no law."-Yon-

A Matter of Fractions. Biggs-My half brother is engaged to my wife's half sister. Diggs-When are better than her poems. - Boston portunity to become an evildoer.-Quin-

For the Children

A Fungus That Grows

Over an Inch a Minute.

David Fairchild, M. Sc., in charge of the department of foreign seed and plant introduction, department of agriculture, writes in regard to the ac-

"This mushroom, the dictyophora, "This Boer family was one of the or 'net bearer,' grows in the jungles of rapidly during the exposure that the "The women are mute beings, ac- outlines were blurred on the plate.

"The inquiry concerning the rapidity figured therein is a perfectly natural "The farmer depends upon his ten or one, for this marvelous growth seems Lloyd's Mycological Notes he illustrates photographically the development of Phallus aurantiacus, which in one minute lengthened its stem from six lines to twenty-one lines. The actual increase in length was fifteen "The Boer is not long lived. One lines, or one and one-quarter inches, in one minute. This is not the same species as that called 'the dictyophora' in your example, but it is a confirmation of the probable correctness of the surprising statement made by Dr. Fairchild."-St. Nicholas.

Game of Trades.

A jolly little game for children to participate in of evenings after study hour is called "the trades" and is played in the following manner:

Each participant chooses a trade, which he exercises in accordance with the style of the trade. The shoemaker mends shoes, the carpenter saws boards, the painter paints a portrait, the laundress washes linen in a tub. the cook stirs a cake, the locksmith hammers a lock, and the spinner turns a wheel.

One of the party is chosen as leader. Then all get into a circle, either sitting or standing, and begin exercising according to their individual vocations. When the leader tires of his or her trade he or she quickly takes up that of the boy or girl seated to the right, and instantly all leave off their own trade and begin imitating the movements of the right hand neighbor. This throws the leadership to the player seated at the original leader's left, who takes up the trade abandoned by the first leader. If one of the players makes a mistake he must pay a forfeit.

Conundrums.

What is the greatest surgical operation the United States has ever known? Lansing. Michigan.

On which side of a pitcher should the handle always be put? On the outside. In which campaign was the hero Atilla killed? The last one.

Why is a colt like an egg? It must Y. P. S. C. be broken before it can be used. What root must you hold in your hand to stop toothache? The root of the tooth that aches.-Philadelphia Origin of Siskiyou.

Ledger.

Siskiyou, county in California and mountains in Oregon. By some authorities it is said to be a corruption of such an omission would have caused a the original name given the district in California by the French-six cailloux, meaning "six bowlders." Others state that it is an Indian word meaning "bobtailed horse," the mountains between California and Oregon baving been so named because a famous bobtailed race horse was lost on the trail. -United States Geological Survey.

> The Wayside Inns. When autumn goes and cold begins

Guests flock to all the wayside inns. While clouds hang low and snowflakes fly They hold their dainty revelry. The flowers are gone that summer knew Long since the summer's songsters flew. But still remain the sturdy weeds That know the little sparrows' needs

Though sapless stalks are brown and dry. The weeds still bear their feasts on high. The goldfinch here may eat his fill. The junco lunch on seeds at will. We never praised in brighter hours Their sober hues among the flowers. What need have they of human words Who bring such joy to all the birds?

ARLINGTON SOCIETIES, CHURCHES, Etc.

ARLINGTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK. Warren A. Peirce, prest.; Chas. H. Stevens, secretary; O.W. Whittemore, treasurer Meets in banking rooms of First National Bank, first Tuesday in each month, at 7.30 p. m. Money offered at auction at 8.30. ARLINGTON FIVE-CENT SAVINGS BANK. Bank Building, corner Massachusetts avenue and feasant street. William G. Peck, president; H. dasdale, sec. and treas. Open daily from 3 to 5.30 m.; Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9.

ARLINGTON BOAT CLUB Meets first Monday in each month at Club House on margin of Spy Pond. Admission fee $10; annu

ARLINGTON FINANCE CLUB. Meets by invitation fourth Tuesday in each month

A. O. H., DIV. 23. Meets in Hibernian Hall, corner Mystic and Che nut streets, first and third Tuesdays of each mont at 7.30 p. m.

A. O. U. W., CIRCLE LODGE NO. 77 Meets first and third Fridays of each mont Crescent Hall, A. H., at 8 p. m. JAMES RAY COLE LODGE, NO. 160 Knights of Pythias. Meets first and third Tuesdays in I. O. O. F. Hall.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK. E. Nelson Blake, president: John A. Easten, ier. Corner Massachusetts avenue and Pleasant si Open daily from 8 a.m. to 3 p. m., on Wedne and Saturday evenings from 7 to 8.30.

FIRE DEPARTMENT. Hose No. 1, on Park avenue; Hose No. 2, on Mass achusetts avenue; Menotomy Hook and Ladder; Hose No. 3, on Broadway; Chemical A, on Massachusetts

F. A. M., HIRAM LODGE, Meets in Masonic Hall, corner Massachusetts ave aue and Medford street, Thursday on or before the full

FORESTERS OF AMERICA. Court Pride, of Arlington, Meets in Adelphian Hall and 4th Mondays of each month at 8 o'clock.

I. O. O. F., BETHEL LODGE, NO. 12. Meets in Odd Fellows' Hall, Bank Building, every

IDA F. BUTLER REBEKAH LODGE NO. 150. Meets first and third Monday evenings of month in Bethel Lodge Room,

MENOTOMY R. A. CHAPTER. Meets third Tuesday of each month in Ma

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, NO. 100. Meets second and fourth Thursdays of each me a K. of C. Hall, 9 Mystic street

ST. AGNES COURT, No. 141 Daughters of Isabella. Meets in K. of C. Hall, fystic Street, second and fourth Mondays. ROBBINS PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Open Daily, expect Sundays, from 10.00 a m to 0.00 p. m. Children's Room, 10,00 a. m. to 6.00 p. m. Sundays, for readers only, a.30 to 5 p. m. Closed on ARLINGTON HEIGHTS BRANCH.

Open Tuesdays and Saturdays from 1 to 6; 7 to . m. Thursdays, 3 to 6; 7 to 9 p. m. ROYAL ARCANUM. Menotomy Council No. 1781. Meets first and third Fridays of each month in G. A. R. Hall,

370 Mass ave, at 8 p. m. TOWN OFFICERS. Selectmen meet at their office in Town Hall on the ad and 4th Mondays with the Joint Board. On the off ek they meet on Saturday evening.

Board of Public Works, each Monday evening

o. Joint Board, and and 4th Mondays at 7.30. 7.30. Joint Board, and and 4th mounts, 9 a.m. to 12
Town Clerk and Treasurer, office hours, 9 a.m. to 12 m.; 2 to 5 p. m. Collector office hours, Mondays, 7
Saturdays, 0 a.m. to 12 m., ony. o. m. Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 12 m., ony. ard of Health, last Friday of each month at 7.30

Engineers Fire Department, Saturday before I Monday, each month. School Committee, third Tuesday evening month Trustees of Cemetery, on call of chairman. Board of Assessors, every Thursday afternoon

WOMEN'S C T. UNION. and third Tuesdays of each mo UNITED ORDER I. O. L.

Golden Rule Lodge No. 51. Meets in G. A. R. Hall the first and third Tuesday evenings in each month. BAY STATE L. O. L. NO. 418. Meets in Grand Army Hall, second and fourth Monday in each month.

U. O. G. C. Paul Revere Commandery No. 831 meets 1st and 3d Monday of each month, at 8, p. m., in Knights of Columbus Hall.

Churches and church services.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL PARISH. (Unitarian.) Corner Massachusetts avenue and Pleasant street, Rev. Frederic Gill, minister, 29 Academy st. Sunday morning service at 10.45; Sunday school at neon, except during July and August. Evening service on the second Sunday of each month, from November to March, inclusive at seven collect.

March, inclusive, at seven o'clock. ARLINGTON FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. day services at 10.30 a. m.; Sunday school at noon bour; Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6.45 p. m. Rev. Nathan E. Wood, D. D., minister.

ORTHODOX CONGREGATIONAL. Corner Pleasant and Maple streets. Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, par: w; re idence on Maple steeet, opposite the church. Sunday services at 10.45 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 p. m.; Sunday school at noon, except during July and August; Friday evenings, at 7.30, social service in vestry.

FIRST UNIVERSALIST. Massachusetts avenue, opposite Academy street, Rev. Frank Lincoln Masseck, pastor, 43 Gray street Sunday services in the morning at 10.45; Sunday school at noon, except during July and August. Y. P.

Union at 2.00 p. m. ST. AGNES, CATHOLIC. Corner Medford and Chestnut streets. Rev. John M. Mulcahy, pastor; Rev. Joseph P. Lawless, Rev. George F. Quigley, assistants. Parsonage, 24 Medford street, next to church. Mass at 7, 8.30, 9.30, High Mass at 10.30; Sunday school at 2.30 p. m.; Vespers at 3.30 p. m.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL. Corner Academy and Maple streets. Rev. Sam'l Neal Kent, Rector. 8 a.m., Holy Communion (except ist Sunday in the mon's); 9.30 Church School; 10 45 Morning Prayer; 7.30 Evening Prayer; Holy Communion at 10.45 on First Sundays; Litany on Third Sundays; Holy Communion on Saints' Day at 9 a. m. PARK AVENUE CHURCH.

(Orth. Congregation

Cor. Park and Wollaston avenues, Arlington Heights. Rev. John G. Taylor, pastor. Sunday morning service at 10.45; Sunday school at 12.10; Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6.30 p. m.; Sunday afternoon at 3.30, Junior C. E. meeting; Thursday evening at 8 o'clock prayer meetin BAPTIST CHURCH, ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Cor. Park and Westminster Avenues. Rev. D. T. Wyman, minister. Sunday services: Morning worship, 10-45, a. m.; Bible school at noon; Junior C. E., 4, p. m.; Senior C. E., 6, p. m.; evening worship, 7, p. m. Praise and testimonial service Friday evening at 7-45. A hearty welcome extended to all without a church home to worship with us. Pastor's residence, 34 Hall Avenue, West Somerville, Masst FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

Corner of Lowell street and Westminister Avenue, Arlington Heights. Preaching, Sunday, 10.45, a.m.; Sunday school, 12, noon; praise and prayer service, 6.15, p. m.; preaching. - p. m Rev. Leonard Oechsli, Minister, 2 Crescent Hill avenue. TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH. Mass. ave., Arlington, near Teele St. Rev. York A. King, B. D., Minister; residence 18 Magnolia St., Sunday services:—Morning prayer 10.00, Worship and Sermon 10.30, Sunday school 11.45; Young People's Meeting 4 p. m., Evening Service and Sermon 7 p. m., Weekly prayer service Thursday evening

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, LEXINGTON Pastor, Rev. Samuel A. Knowles. Reside Massachusetts Avenue. ing service at 7 o'clock.

CHURCH OF OUR REDEEMER, Merriam street, Lexington. Morning service even o clock. All welcome. ORDER OF EASTERN RTAR

ongfellow Ceapter 117, meets in G. A. R. Hall toud and fourth Wednescays of each month. G. A. R., FRANCIS GOULD POST, 36. Mosets in G. A. R. Hall, Massachusetts avenue, a and and fourth Thursdays of each month, at 8 o'cle p. m. W. R. C., No. 43, meets on afternoons of sa

S. OF V. CAMP 45 Meets in G. A.R. Haall, on the first and third May of each month, at eight o'clock. HER CHECK.

And the Mean Teller's Reasons For Not Cashing It.

She was brisk and full of business as she bustled into the bank, indorsed a check and then hunded it in at the window.

to the right window the very first of keys of which he is also the origtime," she said, with a beaming smile. | inator. | Nearly ten years ago he tried "We women are getting to know a little bit about banking."

"That's very true, indeed, madam," said the teller, "but this check is not signed by any one."

"Well, I just got it from my husband. He's in Chicago. Here's his letter telling that he is inclosing it." "That's all good enough, madam, but the check itself must be signed." "Here's the name on the letter. Can't you cut it off and paste it on the check?"

It took the teller some time to explain, and he still wonders if she doesn't think he just didn't want her to have the money.—Boston Advertiser.

Friends.

The plumber's friend-Jack Frost. The artist's friend-The potboiler. The merchant's friend-The advertising man. The druggist's friend-The inventor of hot drinks and the inventor of ice cream sodas.

The collector's friend-The person who pays a little at a time, but not enough to let the collector work himself out of a job.

The waiter's friend-The diner who orders what he wants and does not change his mind. The conductor's friend-He has none.

The inebriate's friend-The patrolman. Everybody's friend-The pawnbroker.-Buffalo Express.

Suitable to His Needs. Mr. Payson and Mr. Deadbeat met on the street

"I see you've moved again, Deadbeat," was Payson's greeting. "Where are you living now?" "Over on the next street," rejoined Deadbeat easily. "I made the change because my new place has a high board fence in front with a sign on that exactly suits me as a warning to all my creditors not to mail me any more bills."

"What's the sign say?" " 'Post No Bills.' "-Judge's Library.

Forgiven.

"Clarence," said the American heiress hesitatingly. "I think that you should be told at once how my father made his money. Our business men in this country have methods which to one of your pure soul, whose motto is 'Noblesse oblige.' cannot but"-

"Cease, Mamie. cease." said the young lord reassuringly; "tell me no more. However he made his millions, I can forgive for your sake. But-er -has he still got them all right?"-London Globe.

"Dead Language." "'Hic jacet,' " quoted Miss Pechis as they strolled through the cemetery. "What does that mean on all these old tombstones?" "Why-er-you see," began Bluffer, "that's an abbreviation for 'hickory jacket'-that is to say, 'hickory coffin.'

see?"-Catholic Standard and Times. Father's Requirement. "And are you positive that you can support my daughter?" "I think that I can make both ends meet." "That isn't sufficient. The man who marries my daughter must not only make both ends meet; he must be able to make them overlap."-Life.

That's the kind they used in old times.

Better.

is growing better?" "Yes, I do. I saw a woman pay car fare for a twelve-year-old boy this morning without making an effort to convince the conductor that the child was under six." - Chicago Record-Her- in a mobile battalion under General

What He Had.

Customer-Ca' you 'ake 'e up a per skiptive for a bad cowd? Chemist-Certainly, Have you got the prescription with you? Customer-No. but I got the cowd. Punch.

Strange. Knicker-Memory is strange.

Bocker-Yes: the landlord remembers to tay in cheap summer coal, but never remembers to have the boilers overhauled till after a cold snap.-Judge.

MUSICAL NOTATION.

A New System and the Claims That Ars Mads For It.

Considerable attention is being given in the inusical world, especially in Europe, to a new system of notation invented by a man from the Argentine "You see, I've indorsed it and come Republic and adapted to a new series to get his system recognized, but could not conquer the indifference of musicians. Now. however, he has so improved upon his work that many musicians in Europe are enthusiastic over the idea. Aside from the fact that it is said to facilitate note reading, it is expected in time to reduce the present more or less complicated musical writing to comparative simplicity.

This system of musical notation consists of a scale of a dozen sounds, which are called la, se, st, do, du, re, ro, mi, fa, fe, sol and nu. These correspond respectively, the la to la sharp or si flat, si to do sharp or re flat, re to re sharp of mi flat of our present system.

It is claimed that this will finally do away with the system of sharps and flats as we know them in playing and reduce the writing of music to three simple signs, notes on, above or below the line, and some slight modifications to express duration, intensity, bass, treble, etc., more exactly than at pres-

The keyboard which in time will accompany this system of notation is adapted to pianos actually in use, there being no difference between the spaces of white and black keys. The la is indicated in azure, while the new scale tones (du and ro) are designated by white lines drawn down the center of the black keys.-Harper's Weekly,

MOISTURE ON THE MOON.

Some Little Life May Still Remain In Spots on the Planet.

Is the moon entirely dead, or are there still some traces of life left? Most scientists assume that it is but the skeleton of a planet, without air or water. But here and there an astronomer of courage declares that he has discovered signs that there is still going on some sort of geological action.

The latest is Johannes Korn, who devoted a year to a study of the little crater Taquet. He claims that a week after new moon this appears as a crater full of deep shadow. But in a few days the crater is replaced by a bright spot, although the neighboring craters are easily distinguished.

A few days more and the crater reappears and doesn't change its appearance until another lunar day comes. por forms in the depths of Taquet during the long cold lunar night. Then, as the sun advances, the vapor warms and expands, finally filling the crater, so that it cannot be seen. Still later in the long lunar day the vapor is dissipated by the heat and the crater again stands out empty and barren. Similar conditions have been observed in other craters, always the same a little life left in a few places on the moon-that is, there is some sort of eruption of vapor. Whether there is any animal or vegetable life is another question.-Boston ones, while others near them show no changes. The conclusion this observer has reached is that there is still

Lord Kitchener's French Service. Lord Kitchener is to receive the war medal for having served with the French army in 1870; but though the fact of this service has often been as serted by the French, "K, of K." himself has never either "admitted or denied." During the war he was a Woolwich cadet, and in the long vacation "Do you honestly believe the world he joined his family at Dinan, in Brittany, to rub up his French. Nearest the truth perhaps is the writer who says: "Lord Kitchener's first experience of war was under the French flag. In 1870 he enlisted as a private monia."-London Chronicle.

Chanzy. He saw no fighting, but assisted in some balloon ascents that ended in a chill and an attack of pneu-

Aeroplanes With Gyroscopes, M. Girardville has been experimenting in France with model aeroplanes fitted with gyroscopes to insure stability. The principle is the same as in the application of gyroscopes to counteract the rolling of ships. In a report to the Paris Academy of Sciences M. Girardville says that his models when used as gliders without motors were free from periodic oscillations and that they automatically re-established their equilibrium after being disturbed. The difficulty is that the gyroscope introduces an extra weight to be carried. With his models M. Girardville used gyroscopes weighing about twelve pounds and rotating at the rate of 6.900 turns a minute.

Human Hair Lace.

They are making lace from human hair now. No; it is not for trimming dresses with, but is used for the partings of wigs. It is made by hand, and the knots are held by a solution of wax; otherwise they would unravel. When this lace is used it takes an almost microscopic examination to detect that the wig is not natural.-New York World.

Art In France.

Francis I. did much for art in France. He bought splendid pictures for the nation and proposed subjects for French artists; he brought Leonardo da Vinci from Italy, and this original genius died in France some authorities say in the very arms of the king.

Published every Saturday noon by

C. S. PARKER & SON, Editors and Proprietors.

Single copies 5 cts

Arlington, Jan. 6, 1912.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The Opening Year.

The year 1911 closed with the first real snow storm of the winter season, and about three inches accumulated on the hard, frozen earth. It looked as though our belated New England weather had at length put in an appearance, but by noon on Sunday it was slip, slide, slip in the slush of the rapidly melting snow. With the night came cooler weather and New Year's day found one real comfort secured by what remained of the snow,diminution of the dust plague that for a week had been causing no end of discomfort and doubtless a deal of sickness.

The Great and General Court assembled on Wednesday and organized without friction, Levi H. Greenwood being chosen President of the Senate and Grafton D. Cushing, Speaker of the House. The following day the Governor and other state officers were inaugurated with the usual pomp and ceremony and Gov. Foss deto us seems big with possibilities, was the inauguration of Dr. Sun Yat Sen as President of the new Chinese Republic, whose first official act was to substitute world. It was not in itself a great matter, but it implies that the men now in try and keep step with the world's pro-

the President of the United States, who women, for it is a story of romantic love says, "It must be accomplished and on a put on the stage in marvellously beautiful movement to raise a fund of two and one-half million dollars, for the erection and endowment at the nation's capital of a great peace memorial to George Washington, the country's first great peace advocate. Already one-fifth of the entire amount has been pledged, and the tending the work to all parts of the country. The two main purposes of this Memorial Hall are to afford an auditorium in keeping with our national dignity, where the United States may take its rightful place with foreign capitals in entertaining international congresses, and to provide headquarters for the National Societies devoted to civic betterment, to moral advancement and to the advancement and to the highest interests of the arts and sciences.

"No labor leaders, not even Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor, has lifted a hand to help us in cleaning up the big dynamite con- demy street. The Misses Robbins prospiracy, either before or after the Mc-Namaras were arrested." This is the emphatic statement Oscar Lawler, special Government prosecutor. It will be re- eminent sculptor, resident of Arlington denounce the McNamaras after their confession, and many of them were quoted as saying that every effort should be made to prosecute all guilty persons to the full small be done in the direction of enlargextent of the law, but no one has volunteered to get from the McNamaras any unfortunate from every possible point of teered to get from the McNamaras any details of the alleged conspiracy in which details of the alleged conspiracy in which they figured.

vated propose to do. They have been unable to handle the live freight with any adequate comfort to humanity, and part. We trust all Arlington citizens now they are granted the franchise to will show their appreciation by their carry ordinary freight. To be sure freight presence at the meeting, where we trust and "cattle cars" are supposed to train(e) mensurate with what we know is the together!

South America.

True to his avowed purpose of blending education with entertainment, Burton Holmes announces for his nineteenth season a series of Travelogues on South American topics, which not only will appeal to travelers and the stay-at-homes of scenery and human interest embodied therein, but which will have the added endorsement of wide-awake business men. South America is the natural market of as such Mr. Holmes' coming series has a Aires and Argentina; Rio de Janeiro and new railroad; Pernambuco, Bahia, San Paulo, Montevideo, Santos,—all of these points are among those to be exploited

He found South America, during his

Arlington Advocate and wider appeal to every wide-awake started and six in a building adjoining Brief News Items.

American desirous of carrying the Stars the main stable were taken safely out. and Stripes of commerce into foreign markets. Mr. Holmes will give his South American Series at Tremont Tem-Fowle's Block, Mass. Avenue ple on five successive Friday evenings and at the blaze and the firemen had a hard five Saturday afternoons,—two courses, fight. Mr. Silk stated that he had left Jan. 12 and 13.

> There need no longer be any doubt about the place or places where you wish to spend your winter vacation. Suburban Life Magazine for January is filled to overflowing with seasonable and attractive suggestions. Margaret and attractive suggestions. Margaret Woodward in an interesting article, "Why the American Boy Is a Problem," tells of a solution of this problem which will interest many. "How I Built My House" is the story of the building of an ideal Southern home told by the owner. "What Paradise Valley Did for Sally," tells of a trip to Mt. Ranier National Park, why it was taken and the result. "The Experience of a Country Woman with Fine Arts and Crafts Bas-Woman with Fine Arts and Crafts Baskets," is about a diversion which to many may be made profitable. "Balmy Places Across the Sea" treats of trips to tropical and semitropical countries. "Some of the Things Mother Used to Make," will appeal to many who have longed these many years for those old-time dishes.

If the publishers of Lippincott's re planning any New Year resolutions relative to making better numbers than that for January, they have their work cut out for them; for the January Lippincott's is a great big, satisfisfying issue, full of good things. First, there's a complete novel-"Kilmorgan's Heir," by Kathryn Jarboe. This is a tale of the Southwest, with virile plot and charmful character drawing. As for the shortstories, no better collection has appeared in any one magazine for many a day. An important and timely article is "The Prospective Panama Canal," by Forbes Lindsay. Edward Sherwood Meade's financial article has for its theme "The Banking House as an Aid to Investors." In the department "Ways of the Hour" are brief papers on "The Stage of To-morrow," by Robert Grau; "Originality," by Mary Eleanor Roberts; "Not a Fad, livered his second inaugural address.

The one event of the opening year that

The one event of the opening year that

The one event of the opening year that

The instantaneous success of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," at the Boston Theatre, was foreshadowed by the stirring reception Eugene Walters's play for the Chinese calendar year, the date in had met with in the other cities where it use by most of the other countries of the had appeared. Packed houses have greeted Miss Charlotte Walker and her splendid company of players. Few players, if any, have in the long career of the control of the great empire and its hun- Boston Theatre attracted larger or more dreds of millions of people, propose to appreciative audiences and many that have attended in the past weeks were acquainted with all the characters which John Fox, Jr. has written so entertainingly around. It is a story which appeals to With the personal endorsement of young and old, to men as well as to magnificent scale," the George Washing-ton Memorial Association of Washing, and childlike appeal to the love of nature ton, D. C., is entering upon a nation- inherent in even the most depraved of affections of theatre goers. As June, Miss Walker dominates the play. She is alternately shy, rebellious, subtile, simple, unassuming hanghty with the mountaineer's pride, but never with the slightest trace of crudeity in her work. It is a stage picture in a hundred. And her company is superb. W. S. Hart, famed Association is perfecting plans for ex- throughout the country for his delineation of Cash Hawkins in "The Squaw Man," gives a realistic bit of genre work and all others are excellent.

Special Town Meeting.

Warrants have been issued for a town meeting in Town Hall, Arlington, next Monday evening, the eighth, at seven-Monday evening, the eighth, at seven-thirty. There are only two articles re-lating to business, but these are of the utmost moment to the town. The first asks that the town accept the proposal of the Misses Ida F., Eliza P. and Caira Robbins, of this town, residuary legatees under the will of Winfield Robbins, to erect a Town House on the lot long reserved for the purpose of a Town Hall, on the corner of Mass. avenue and Academy street. The Misses Robbins propose to park the grounds surrounding the Town House, which will have for its central feature a superb bronze statue of an Indian, executed by Cyrus Dallin, the water basins or fountains.

purport of this article is that nothing ing the building which will encroach on attention of our most thoughtful and discerning citizens. The gift of the Misses We wonder what the Boston Ele- Robbins, on behalf of their cousin, is a magnificent one and involves a large expenditure of money, besides time and great thought and consideration on their the expression will be of a nature comkeenest appreciation of our citizens of the rare generosity which has marked this proposed gift to our town and which will tend to give it an uplift in many ways not dreamed of.

Ten Horses Burned.

Ten of the twenty-one horses stabled in the two barns of John Silk, a truckman at 35 Gardner street, Arlington, were among his patrons because of the beauties burned Friday evening, Dec. 29, when a fire of unknown origin destroyed the building. Five horses ran from the barn and six others were led out. By that time the stable had become a monster furnace and none dared venture in to save every exporter in the United States, and the others. The loss was about $6000. The fire was discovered while the family potent commercial value, which none of his former series has possessed. Buenos Aires and Argentina; Rio de Janeiro and flames with great rapidity and when Mr. Brazil; Across the Andes to Chile by the Silk opened the door of the barn he was gloct tf met with a rush of flames and smoke which drove him back.

Many men ran to the place and made by Mr. Holmes in his Travelogues this fruitless efforts to get into the barn and save some of the animals. One horse broke through the flames and ran out seven month's sojourn there this past spring and summer, a veritable wonder-land of beauty, grandeur and varied land of beauty grandeur and beauty grandeur and grandeur grand exactly alike,—beginning respectively the stable but about half an hour before the fire was discovered and, as there was no lantern left there and he did not allow his men to smoke in the stable, he is at a loss to account for the cause of the fire. The animals were valued at about $3500, while the loss on the stable and fittings is estimated at about $2000. Mr. Silk has some insurance on the place. The fire attracted many from Somerville and this town.

If you are looking for a variety of high class attractions, the best offered in the theatrical field, you must seek the Plymouth Theatre. Next Monday night, Miss May Irwin will open a limited engagement of two weeks only, when she will appear in a new satrical farce entitled "She Knows Better Now." The play tled "She Knows Better Now." The play was originally written for "America's Queen of Comedy," and contains every element of that peculiarly adapted style that Miss Inwin passesses. Not any that Miss Irwin possesses. Not only is Miss Irwin provided with a unusually funny vehicle, but her managers, Leibler and Company, have spared neither time nor expense in the white House in Washington was attended by 8,092 people. It was a brilliant affair and more largely attended than last year's nor expense in the careful supervision of her cast and production. It is almost a pity that the engagement cannot be extended longer than two weeks, especially for the reason that Miss Irwin is a prime favorite with the theatre-goers of this section. If you know what's best, you'll section. If you know what's best, you'll not miss seeing Miss Irwin in this piece. The lady needs no introduction to the theatre loving public of this country, for she is the "peer of American comedienshe is the "peer of American comedien-nes." Here's your chance to enjoy the comic treat of the season. Send in your Prices 50 cents to $2.00.

on a triumphant career at the Castle on a triumphant career at the Castle snow covering the ground, southern and east-ern Colorado are experiencing the most severe and prolonged period of cold weather that has so great that everybody is urged to make so great that everybody is urged to make immediate application at the box office, street. Its run is limited, and there will secure tickets.

Marriages.

QUIGLEY-TOMLIN-In Lexington, Dec. 27, by Rev. Fr. M. J. Owens, John Owin Quigley, of Lexington and LMa Elizabeth Tomiin, of BERTHRONG-GRAY-In Mansfield, Mass, Dec. 30, by Rey. Mr. Thompson, Louis Paul Berthrong, of Arlington, and He en Clifford Gray, of Mansfield.

Deaths.

HUTCHINS—In Lexington, Laura Whitney Hutchins, daughter of Freeman and Margaret Hutchins.

Vice-Presidents,—George Y. Wellington, William H. H. Tuttle, James P. Parmenter.

GRANT-In Arlington, Jan. 2, Clarence Henry Grant, aged 64 years, 11 months. SWEENEY-In Arlington, Dec. 29, Thomas Sweeney, aged 81 years.

MCNAMARA—In Arlington, Jan. 8, Mary A., daughter of George and Mary (Powers) Mc Namara, aged 1 month.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to express, for myself and family, our beartfelt gratitude to the host of friends, who, by their words of sympathy and floral remembances, helped to make easier our late bereave-

MRS. SARAH J. HADLEY.

IMPORTANT Any one knowing the address of AGNES GALLIVAN will do her a favor by communicating with or notifying C. W. Berry, 258 Elm street, West Somerville, Mass.

LOST A Collie, sable and white. Female. Please ad ress any information to E. J Rooney, box 78, Lexington. 6janlw.

LOST A black Martin muft Saturday, Dec, 30, between Post Office and Sealey Drug Store, Lexington. Please return the same and receive reward. Sarah B. Van Ness, Pleasant St., East

GIRL WANTED for general housework

Government prosecutor. It will be re-called that labor leaders were quick to Heights, which will overlook a series of or call at house.

WANTED. A girl for general housework at 32 Percy road. Lexington, Phone 4-5, Lexington, or call at house.

The other article relates to the proposed extension of the High school. The place, Arlington.

TO LET Furnished rooms for lodging or housekeeping. Apply to E. Taylor, 24 Swan place, Arlington.

WANTED A woman by the hour or day to do washing, ironing, etc. Address, "P. Q."

Rent a bargain. 42 Walnut St., Arlington. Phone 883 M TO LET. Stable of four stalls, Carriage house and shed for four wagons. Can be used for Garage. Apply to 15 Avon place, Arlington. 16dec6 w

TO LET For business purposes, two large rooms at 461 Mass. Ave., over old Upham Mar-ket. Apply to C. F. Marston, 463 Mass. Ave. dec30 tf

WANTED Maid for general housework. Apply 52 Waltham street, Lexington.

LOST. Book No. 16482 of Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank. Application has been made for payment of the account in accordance with Sec-tion 40, Chapter 590 of the Acts of 1908. Payment

HOUSE TO RENT. 253 Massachusetts Ave. East Lexington, 8 rooms. Inquire of R. A. Somerby or A. L. Griffin, Bowdoin Square Theatre, Boston. Phone Haymarket 1780. 21oct tf

TO LET. A house with modern improvements, lighted with gas, located at 801 Mass. Avenue. Apply at 339 Mass Ave., Arlington. BLACKSMITH WHEELWRIGHT and Paint shops to let. Ira L. Russell Estate, 1108 Mass. Ave., Arlington. 2dectf

FOR SALE. Only a little used. Made by White, Walker Co., Taunton, Mass. Has steel dome and shoe with ample space for hot water coil. Fire pot 2 inches. Apply to O. B. MARSTON CO.,

FARM WANTED

human interest but with an even stronger of the stable furthest from where the fire P. H. MAHONEY, 15 State St., BOSTON

Hyde Park became Ward 26 of Bosto Monday.

The Democratic State Committee has en-dorsed Gov. Foss for President.

Monday was "inauguration day" for muni-cipal officers in several cities in this state. Gov. Bass of N. H. is to be married Jan. 20th, at E. Walpole. He has rented a house at Between now and July 1, every other trolley car must be equipped with a lifting jack of 15 tons capacity, according to an order issued by the board of railroad commissioners.

The U. S. Supreme Court promptly denied the writ of error asked for in the Phelps mur-der case. It was applied for at the instigation

The persistent efforts to side-track President Taft have resulted in a plain statement from him that he intends to work to secure a re-nomination by the Republican party.

Emmett Flood, Samuel Gompers' special representative in the A. F. L. organization. has been arrested in Chicago, charged with being connected with the dynamite plot.

The Boston hotel cases and dining rooms were the scene of festivities on Monday evening. The New York custom of greeting the New Year seems to have found marked favor

Fred H. Seavey, Sheriff of Suffolk County comic treat of the season. Send in your order for seats right now. Make all remittances payable to Fred E. Wright, Manager, Plymouth Theatre, Boston. Prices 50 cents to $2.00.

With the mercury ranging from 15 to 32 "The Wizard of Oz" has started degrees below zero for more than two weeks, and with from twelve to eighteen inches of

The Massachusetts Railroad Commission, or at the branch ticket office at 15 Winter brushing aside the objections of the Boston City Council, grants the Elevated Railroad be plenty of disapointed ones who desire to see it if they delay in the attempt to secure tickets.

Company the right to carry baggage, express and freight over its own and its leased lines, which means through the streets of Boston and the adjoining cities and towns. Permission is given with the usual "public convenience and necessity" observation.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank.

At the annual meeting of the Corporation of the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank, held Dec. 20, 1911, the following named officers were elected for the ensuing year :-President,-Wm. G. Peck.

William (4 George Y. Wellington George Hill William H. H. Tuttle Edward S. Fessenden Benjamin A. Norton Charles W. Allen

Edwin S. Farmer Omar W. Whittemore Henry Hornblower Harvey S. Sears M. Ernest Moore Arthur J. Wellington Henry Blasdale

Clerk of the corporation, -Arthur J. Wellington All the above named persons have accepted said offices and have duly qualified according to

The following named persons are the Corpora tors of the Bank:— William N. Winn James P. Parmenter John S. Crosby William E. Wood John Gray William G. Peck Edward S. Fessenden Henry Hornblower James A. Bailey, Jr. H. A. Phinney S. Fred Hicks Charles W. Allen Nichols L. McKay lohn H. Hardy Joseph C. Holmes Theo. D. Dupee Elbert L. Churchill James A. Bailey George Y. Wellington

George Hill Wm. H. H. Tuttle Benjamin A. Norton Peter Schwamb Edwin S. Farmer Walter Crosby Harvey S. Sears Frank C. Frost Thomas E. Holway M. Ernest Moore M. Ernest Moore
Harry G. Porter
Omar W. Whittemore
William D. Elwell
Arthur J. Wellington
Chester G. Peck
Clarence A. Moore
Frederic S. Mead Frank V. Noyes Henry Blasdale

Attest. ARTHUR J. WELLINGTON, Clerk.

Arlington, Mass., January 6, 1912. COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law and all persons in- Telephone 353-W terested in the estate of JAMES S. MUNROE, late of Lexington, in said County of Middlesex, deceased, testate,

Whereas James P. Munroe and Sumner Robinson, executors of the will of said deceased, have presented their petition for authority to mortgage certain real estate therein described, of the estate of said deceased, to raise the sum of five thousand dollars, for the purposes of payment of debts.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty fifth day of January, A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to

A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioners are ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested, fourteen days, at least, before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington MINUTE MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day at least, before said Court.

at least, before said Court.
Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this second day of January, in the year one thousand nine husdred and twelve.
W. E. BOGERS,
Singly.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of JOHN R. RICHARDSON, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Helen M. Bowser, of Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable

HOUSEHOLD HOT AIR HEATER.

Inly a little used. Made by White, Walker Co., aunton, Mass. Has steel dome and shoe with mple space for hot water coil. Fire pot 2 sches. Apply to O. B. MARSTON CO., loct tf 9 SWAN PLACE, Arlington, Mass.

FARM WANTED

Will pay cash for a farm not over 15 miles from Boston. Send full details.

Will details.

Lowell, in said County, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fourth day of January, A.D., 1812, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington Minuteman, a newspaper published in Lexington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid a copy of this citation to the next of kin of said deceased fourteen days at least before said Court, this second day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

LLOYDS

EYEGLASSES AND SPECTACLES

Everybody wants his Glasses Right and wants them Promptly

Frames must hold the lenses in their right position. Our Frames are the growth of many years of study and experience. Every part has been strengthened and improved. They are strong, durable, comfortable, stylish.

4 STORES USE THE MOST CONVENIENT. 315 Washington St. BOSTON 75 Summer St. 1252 Massachusetts Ave. CAMBRIDGE ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.

INDIAN BLANKETS

STOTOLOGICA COLOTOLOGICA COLOTOLOGICA COLOTOLOGICA COLOTO

PRICE $8.50 MADE OF PURE WOOL, 5x6 feet. warm, durable, beautiful fast colors, authentic designs, for the living room, boudoir, couch covers, lap robes, autos, carriage and Porch. Especially adaptable as gifts, useful every season of the year.

. STANLEY LIVINGSTONE, 59 Temple Pl.

Room 1115. Alex Livingstone, 263 Summer St. Extension, Room 115. Phone Fort Hill, 2220

At Lowest Market Price

PEIRCE & WINN CO.

KENNEDY

Domestic and Foreign Books and Periodicals.

22 Albermarie St., ARLINGTON. Post Office Building, CAMBRIDGE. Something Sweet and Tempting Can be found at all times in our store. FANCY CAKE and PASTRY, Delicious Milk Bread, Rolls and Buiscuits.

Something New: The Arlington Buns FULL LINE OF

HOME-MADE CANDY

N. J. HARDY

BAKER AND CATERER. 657 Mass. Avenue, Arlington

ESTIMATES FURNISHED GEORGE A. BRYSON

Electrical Contractor

LEXINGTON LUMBER

CO

20 Franklin St., Arlington, Mass

KILN-DRIED

FLOORING

Tel. Lexington 370,

Lexington, Mass

R. W. HILLIARD Insurance Agency. 669 Mass. Avenue, ARLINGTON, - - MASS Tel. 4708 Main. | Boston Office, 67 Milk:8t.

FLETCHER'S EXPRESS

461 Mass. Ave.

Telephone Connection

W. W. RAWSON. Florist 🖛 and 🗻 Decorator FUNERAL DESIGNS

AND CUT FLOWERS HARDY PLANTS AND SHRUBS

Greenhouses and Office

Warren Street.

Arlington, Mass. Tel. 341-W Arlington. 13augtf

YOU SHOULD JOIN MENOTOMY COUNCIL

RIGHT NOW

ROYAL ARCANUM

which protects your home and family. It has paid to Widows and Orphans more than $126,000,000, and has a reserve fund of over $6,707,400.56.

Full particulars may be obtained of Henry A. Kidder, Regent, C. R. Münch, Secretary, Franeis B. Wadleigh, Collector, Fred A. Hortter, freasurer, or any officer or member.

Meetings 1st and 3rd Fridays of each month,

In GRAND ARMY HALL.

evening a pleasant atmosphere and the hostess served refreshments.

ment house known as the "Alice," on Medford street, were sold by Mrs. Chas. S. Jacobs on Monday, Jan. 1st, to Reabon B. Sherburne of Lexington, whose good your patronage will do. father built the Post Office Building. We are told that the grantor had held the property to sell at twenty-five thousand dollars, but this was not the purchase price, which, we understand, was less than the assessed valuation. It is supposed that the old building will ulti-mately give place to a large brick block, but the indications are that nothing will be done in this line this year. Mrs. Jacobs vacated the hotel on Monday and moved into a cottage she owns on Broad =Odd Fellows' Hall was filled last Tuesday evening at the public installa-tion of the officers of James Ray Cole Lodge, Knights of Pythias. The officers installed were Arthur B. Moulton, C. M.; L. L. Katon, V. C.; Frank H. Haven, prelate; Harvey Bacon, M. of W.; E. E. Andrews, K. of R. and S.; Henry Binney, M. of F.; Ivers L. Wetherbee, M. of E.; Freeman O. Linnekin, M. of A.; Edward McAllister, I. G.; Boyden Strang, O. G.; Boyden Strang and C. O. Cook, trustees. Following the installation exercises an enjoyable program was presented under the direction of Frank H. Haven, consisting of piano numbers by Mrs. Whitten, piano numbers by Maurice Dineen, plane and violin duet by Kimball and Kemfield, readings by Elsie Williams and vocal numbers by Kenneth McLeod, who has an unusually sweet boy soprano voice. Each feature had that which was pleasing to the audience, which was appreciative and demonstrative.

=The Bradshaw Missionary Asso'n held its annual meeting and election of officers Monday afternoon, in the ladies of the children this was the first Xmas parlor of the Pleasant street Cong'l tree they had ever seen. church. There was a large attendance and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. George McK. Richardson, the president. The usual appropriations for the year were made at this time. The net receipts of the "Sleeping Beauty" entertainment, recently given, amounted to one hundred and seventy-eight dollars. The association has earned two hundred dollars more this year than ever before. The following officers were elected to serve the coming year: -

President, Mrs. W. K. Cook; 1st vice-prest., Mrs. O. L. Storey; 2nd vice-prest., Mrs. W. G. Rolfe; 3rd vice-prest., Mrs. Edward Bacon; rec. sec'y, Miss Josephine Whitaker; corresponding sec'y, Mrs. C. W. Sandford; treas., Mrs. R. T. Hardy; auditor, Mrs. E. O. Grover.

Micronesia." During the social hour Henderson the treasurer. The chairman which followed, delicious refreshments of the several committees for administra-Mrs. Charles Morse and Mrs. James P. tee, Mrs. F. W. Whilton; Visiting, Mrs. Bacon, while Mrs. Charles Winner pre- A. T. Elder Flowers, Mrs. Walter sided at the table.

EAST LEXINGTON LOCALS.

Mr. Fred Jones has a new greenhouse on his estate. There is nothing more cheery in summer than a flower garden, and flowers in the winter are doubly so.

Mr. Davis, a G. A. R. veteran, from Baltimore, Maryland, is here again, visitstrong tie binds them, though they may be comparative strangers, and they have many things in common which draws them shoulder to shoulder.

We were much pleased to receive, Jan. 2d, 1912, New Year's greetings from Miss Claudine Foster. She, with her father and mother, has for some time been enjoying the beauties of St. Augustine, Fla., which, she writes us, as being the oldest city in the United States, is a very quaint and interesting place. She sent us three pictures of noted localities in St. Augustine. We, with many others, wish she would write more of this interesting place, so we may enjoy it with them.

the Snelling family. Mrs. Alice K. Snell-ing wrote us from San Dimar, Calf., that they were settled in their new bungalow the Lord." About half of those who atview and the further range, Sierra Madre, Happy New Year. was white with snow, while near by the golden oranges were hanging from the trees. They have strawberries, peas, string beans and other vegetables fresh from the garden. They have stores of all kinds and large concrete churches and fine residences, as well as all modern modes of conveyance and convenience.

and readings were interspersed. She read a very pathetic story entitled "A Story of the Prairies." This taught a lesson all could grasp and profit by. [Miss Brigham prepared a synopsis of the story, but as our space is too restricted to report at length services of this nature, no matter how excellent they may be for matter how excellent they may be, for we have a wide territory to cover, and such services are numerous at Lexington, Arlington and Arlington Heights and one is as important as another to each of the twelve churches which form part of the table center piece and red candles lit our constituency.-EDITOR.

We were reminded, on Christmas, of the great change since we were young, as but very little notice was then taken of that day. Schools kept here and we remember one snowy afternoon when we were trudging home from Adams school, with two or three others, in the middle of the street, we turned out for a large sleigh with a handsome pair of horses, and the gentleman and lady enveloped with fur robes, and they recognized us and wished us a Merry Christmas and gave us some red apples. They were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rindge, of Cambridge, the parents of the late Mr. Fred Rindge, who gave so much to that city. We scarcely knew what Merry Christmas meant, but were delighted with their kindness and shall never forget it.

The year 1911 gave us as a farewell a touch of winter. The wind blew fiercely Combings Used. for two days and nights. Our houses shook and some trees were prostrated, while the temperature was not torrid. Then on Sunday we had a snow storm, Tel 584 M Associates Bldg., Arlington, Mass.

Continued from page 8.

est. The autobiography of Paton is one of the classics among missionary literature and his life and character are worthy of emulation and commendation. Mrs. Chas. F. Coolidge, the president of the circle, presided in a manner to lend the evening a pleasant atmosphere and the vote of the town granting us a new school house

=The Arlington House, recently known as Cooper Tavern, on the corner of Mass. nvenue and Medford street, also the apartment house known as the "Alice," on Medford street, were sold by Mrs. Chas.

The ladies of Folien Alliance will hold a fifteen cent supper in the vestry, next week Tuesday evening, Jan. 9, and there will be a pleasant entertainment. It is to help our little church and you will get

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS LOCALS.

-Sunday forenoon, at forty-five, at Park Ave. church, there will be the usual divine worship, followed by the communion.

-The Friday Social Club will hold its meeting with Miss Masie Simpson at her home on Clarment avenue, on Friday evening, Jan. 16th.

-Mrs. Fred Curry has been engaged to give an half hour justructions in dancing, at each meeting of the Singers' Club, at the close of the rehearsals.

-Class instruction in ball-room dancing by Miss Vera Morrison, in Zonave Hall, Tuesday evening, Jan. 9, at 8, p. m. Five dollars for fifteen lessons.

-At the Baptist church, Sunday morning, the pastor will have as his subject, "Specialism and Efficiency in the church." At the evening service he will speak on 'The Easy Yoke." All are welcome to

-Last Thursday evening, the mem-bers of Park Ave. church held their annual roll call at the church. Rev. Mr. Taylor gave an address fitting to the occasion and preparatory to the communion service on Sunday morning at this

-Mrs. Gertrude Dwelley and her two sons arranged for a Christmas tree for the children living in their vicinity at Lane, idaho. Mr. George Dwelley also had a tree for his school scholars. For many

-The appearance of the Clover Comedy Club at Union Hall, 48 Boylston street, Boston on Wednesday evening. Jan. 10th, will afford friends a splendid opportunity to see them. The play is a revival of "The Late Mr. Jones," and has Parry. Manager Partridge will assume the part of John Burbage, the tragedian of palmy days.

-The annual meeting of the Woman's Guild was held at Park Ave. church, last Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Geo. H. Mrs. R. T. Hardy; auditor, Mrs. E. O. Grover.

Averill was chosen president, Mrs. Geo.

A. Bunton, the vice, Mrs. Leander D. Brider Chase, who spoke upon "Life in Micronesia." During the social hour of the several committees for administrawere provided by Miss Mary C. Hardy, tive work are as follows: Work commit-Nicoll; Missionary, Mrs. John G. Tayler.

-The Singers Club gave an informal Leap Year party, Monday evening, in Crescent Hall, which was attended by about thirty-five couples. It was given out to be a shirt waist party, but there were some of the lady members of the club and friends who were in pretty summer dresses. The Hancock orchestra furing his nieces, the Misses Davis. He is accompanied by his son. We presume some of our G. A. R. citizens have made his acquaintance, as it is said a very having their choice of partners in the dancing and the evening are described in the dancing and the evening are described in the dancing and the evening of the control of the dancing and the evening of the control of the dancing and the evening are dancing and the evening of the control of the dancing and the evening are dancing are danci nished music for the dancing and the evehaving their choice of partners in nearly all the dances. Frappe was served at intermission and through the remainder of the evening. The party was given under the management of the Board of Direct-

-In spite of the unpleasant weather, there was a good attendance at the Watch Night services at the Methodist Episcopal church on last Sunday evening. The 8.30 service was conducted by Rev. A. P. Goold, who took his subject from the scripture verse, "If any man would be my disciple, let him take up his cross and follow me." The chorus choir sang, "They that trust in the Lord," by Nevins. The next service was conducted by Mr. Chester Savage, of the Epworth We received nice holiday cards from League, and the last hour by the pastor, there and were delighted, and that she tended the first service remained for the was writing with the mountains in full final service and to wish each other a

The meeting of the Arlington Heights Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, on Appleton street, last Tuesday, with about fifty present, including guests. A most pleasing and interesting afternoon was spent with English ballads and music. Papers were read by the chairman; Mrs. Patterson, Miss Alice Spaulding led the Guild and by Mrs. Herbert Snow. Vocal semeeting on Sunday evening, when music lections were rendered by Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, Mrs. H. H. Stinson, Miss lections were rendered by Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, Mrs. H. H. Stinson, Miss Doris Verbeck, sister to Mrs. E. L. Shinn, and by Miss Christine Currier, with Mrs. Shirley and Mrs. Snow as accompanists. Mrs. H. H. Stinson and Mrs. Herbert Snow also rendered piano selections. Before closing the afternoon all were invited to the dining room where tea was served, poured by Mrs. Currier and Mrs. Quimby. The table was tastefully arranged and prettily decorated in red, white and green. Red carnations was the room.

DOLLOFF FARM MILK LICHT AND HEAVY

Buttermilk

CREAM

DOLLOFF

1068 Mass. Ave. Arlington Now is the time to look after HARDWOOD FLOORS

Interior Finish GEO. W. KENTY & CO.

Residence, 16 Harvard St., Arlington, Mass 11mar.

Ladies Hair Dressing Fine quality hair goods to order

Swedish Massage Finest Hosiery-Choice Dress Goods

M. S. PARKHURST

RUSSELL & FAIRFIELD

(Geo. O. Russell)

20 KILBY STREET

BOSTON

a notable cast, including Leila Dorr. Mary Dodge, Fanny Stinson, Marion Squire, Lester Wolff, Roys Woodward, Paul Squire, Clement Godfray, Harold Parry. Manager Partridge will assume

Arlington Insurance Agency,

REPRESENTED BY

Geo. Y. Wellington & Son

Agents for Twelve Stock and Nine Mutual Companies

FIRE LIABILITY BURGLARY

We solicit your AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

SAVINGS BANK BUILDING.

ARLINGTON MASS. Telephone Connection FRANK Y. WELLINGTON

Apollo Chocolates, in Fancy Baskets

35c to $7.00 Cigars in Special Boxes $1.00 Upwards

Full Line Safety Razors, Perfumes, Pipes, Etc. Holidays

C. W. GROSSMITH

Registered Pharmacist Cor. Mass. Ave. and Mystic St., Arlington

J. Henry Hartwell & Son, Undertakers.

ESTABLISHED 1841

Will attend to all duties connected with our profession.

A Lady Attendant, when desired.

Office and Warerooms, 4 Medford St.,

ARLINGTON, MASS. Telephone Connection.-Office 127-W; Res. 127 R

Residence and Night Call .- 792 Mass. Avenue

Branch Office, 55 PARK AVE., Arington Hts.

CLARK BROTHERS,

L AND GRAIN

We handle the Best Grades of GRAIN and ALL RAIL COAL

Grain and Coal Elevators. -CAMBRIDGE JUNCTION Office, $464 Mass. Ave., North Cambridge Junction.

GOODS DELIVERED IN ARLINGTON.

FRANK A. LOCKE, Piano Tuner, Repairer and Regulator.

Over 20 Years' Experience. Tuner in Arlington 15 Yrs Boston Office, 52 Bromfield St. Arlington office, Fred S. Smith's jewelry store, near cor. Mass. Ave., and Mystic Street. Lexington office, H. V. Smith's periodical store. Arlington Hghts. Office, L. D. Bradley's Store. Telephone in Residence.

Recommendations from manufacturers, dealers, teachers, colleges and the musical profession.

Planos selected for parties about to buy and $25 to $75. saved.

Refers to Ex-Gov. Brackett, W. W. Rawson, Dr. Percy, G. G. Allen, H. G. Porter, E. H. Grey H. A. Phinney, E. Nelson Blake, Wm. E. Wood, Hon. Sam'l McCall, Vice-Prest, Berry, B. & M. R. R., Ex-Supt. French, N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., Gen. Manager Barr, B. & M. R. R. nad many others.

ROBBINS LIBRARY, ARLINGTON. NEW BOOKS.

Briggs, L. B. R. Girls and education. 376.10 Duryea, Nina L. House of the seven gab-

Favre de Coulevain, Mile. [Pierre de Coulevain.] On the branch. 38427.1 Flandrau, C. M. Viva Mexico! 908.26 Journal of the 45th annual encampment Department of Mass. G. A. R., Fanguil Hall, Boston, Mass., Apr. 5, 6, 1911.

Kelly, Myra. Her little young ladyship, Knight, W. A. Song of our Syrian guest. Liebermann, Max. (Klassiker der Kunst in Gesamtausgaben.) (German.)

London, J. Cruise of the Snark. 980.3 Lynde, C. J. Home waterworks: manual of water supply in country homes

Meriwether, L. | Seing Europe by auto-28.62 Porter, Gene S. Harvester. 74931.4 Redmond, J. Home rule. Speeches. 38.10 Seawell, Molly E. Ladies' battle. 324.1 Stowe, C. E. and L. B. Harriet Bercher Stowe: story of her life. 8789.92 Taylor, F. W. Principles of scientific management. 658.11 Thayer, W. R. Life and times of Cavour. Ward, G. O. Practical use of books and libraries. Wilson, H. L. Bungalow book. 728.24

BOOKS PRESENTED TO ARLINGTON HEIGHTS READING ROOM. Anagnos, Michael. 1837-1906. 13744.90H

Eddy, Mary Baker. Editorial comments on [her] life and work. 3618.80H Elson, A. Music club programs from all nations. 780.1H Emerson, R. W. Conduct of life.

Essays. First series. 3696.51H Essays. Second series. 3696.52H Miscellanies. 3696.53H Khayyam, Omar. Rubályát. 5663.40H Peabody, Henry Wayland, merchant. 72980.90H

Porter, R. P. Dangers of municipal trad-Romanes, G. J. Mental evolution in ani-Jennyson, A., lord. Princess. 8972.41H Whiteing, Richard. No. 5 John Street. 9582.1H

GERMAN BOOKS.

George, H. Fortschritt und Armuth. Heinzen, K. Erlebtes. 48155.90H Gedichte. 48155.40H 48155.30H Lustspiele. Siechentroft. Novelle. 48155.1H Teutsche Editoren-Kongress zu Cincinnati 48155.91H Teutscher Radikalismus in Amerika. Ausgewählte Vorträge. 48155 50H Kropotkin, P. Gegenseitige Hilfe in der Tier-und Menschenwelt. 170.1H

ITALIAN BOOKS. Deutsch, L. G. Sedici Anni in Siberia. 33364.90 H Pellico, S. Mie prigioni. Memorie.

170.1H

Piperno, A. Salute. Dec. 23, 1911.

"A Prosperous and Happy New Year" our coal will aid you materially in securing it because of its REAL EX-CELLENCE.

A coal that burns long and gives the maximum heat is materially conducive to genuine happiness and prosperity—our coal fills these requirements.

Place a trial order with us and be convinced.

Call Arlington 12.

LLOYD COAL CO.

J. V. N. HATFIELD, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER Jobbins Promptly Attended To 80 Pleasant Street, ARLINGTON.

R. W. Shattuck & Co offer a full line of Carving Sets,

Roasting Pans, (single and double) Chopping Trays, Food Choppers, Pie Plates, etc.,

Perfection Oil Heaters, High and Low Gas Radiators,

Galvanized Ash Cans. Ash Can Trucks, Rotary and Plain Ash Sieves, Galvanized Garbage Cans, Galvanized Coal Hods, Lanterns of all kinds.

"Besdam" Auto Tire Chains. ask to see the best tire chain on the market.

" Polarine" Automobile Oil.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of LORING W. MUZZEY, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased,

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Clifford L. Muzzey, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are bereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-third day of January, A. D., 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington MINUTE MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. Meintire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

6 jan3w

Notice is hereby given that the supacriber has

Notice is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of William S. Patterson, late of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

JOSEPH PATTERSON, Adm. Address)
7 Cross St., Arlington, Mass.

BOARD OF SURVEY.

A petition has been received by the Board of Survey from A. E. Salt, contemplating the laying out, or locating and constructing the following named streets or ways in the Town of Arlington, as shown on plans submitted and accompanying the petition. Said plans are now on file in this office. The Board is asked to approve said plans under the provisions of Chapter 249, Acts of 1897.

A hearing will be given on said petition at the Selectmen's Room, Town Hall, on Monday, Jan. 15, 1912, at 8 o'clock.

> HERBERT W. RAWSON, JACOB BITZER, FRANK V. NOYES, WILLIAM N. WINN, Survey HENRY W. HAYES, RODNEY T. HARDY, of Arlington.

LINE FULL

Interior and Exterior Paints Gloss AND STAINS.

All colors.

J. F. BERTON.

8 Medford St., ARLINGTON.;

Residence, 156jMorrison Ave., Somerville. Ariington $9-4. Somerville412-6.

JAMES T. SWAN. CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT. 60 STATE ST., BOSTON.

el. Fort Hill 2447

MAKERS OF APPRO-PRIATE PICTURE

Carpenter and Builder Specialty made of Jobbing. West Medford and Shop, MEDFORD St., ARLINGTON [Rea of J. H. Hartwell & Son.] Telephone Residence, 131 Mystic St.

Miss Parker. Arlingon.

Furs Remodelled $2 up. Muffs Lined $1. Seal and Automobile Coats Re-lined, Repaired, Dyed. $10. Ladies hand-some Fur Coats, 52 inches long, black or brown, with brocaded satin lining, $30 up. New fash-onable Furs, Muffs, Scarfs, ready made or to Capital, $50,000. Surplus, $50,000

Arlington, Mass.

JAMES A. BAILEY Jr., Vice-President JOHN A. EASTON, Cashier

WILLIAM GRATTO HARDWARE

AGENT FOR Metropolitan Coal Co., Paroid Neponset Roofing.

Perfection Oil Heaters.

FOSTER BROTHERS

Residence : Arlington 651, M 27jan8m

MIRROR FRAMES

4 Park Sq. Boston

H. E. GAMESTER

Millinery.

12 Pelham Terrace, Telephone.

order, $5 to $75.

TAYLOR'S, 88 Boylston St., Boston, or at residence, 39 Wellington Street, Arlingto evenings. Tel. Oxford 2914-R. 140et2m

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

E, NELSON BLAKE, President.

Real Estate Insurance Personal Attention given to Care of Property

Sherwin-Williams Paint.

ENSEMBLE SETS.

Hat, Cape and Muff of Satin and Marabou.

SET IN BATIN AND MARABOU.

It is very Frenchy and chic this season to have an ensemble set, consisting of hat, cape and muff, made of satin and marabou.

Such a smart little outfit is pictured of black satin and white marabou.

The muff is an enormous confection resembling a big, loosely tied bow. And there is an air of newness about the shoulder cape, which is gathered in lamp shade effect.

The poke shaped bonnet is becoming to a piquant face.

Parted Lips Soften Photograph. A woman was being posed for her photograph in a gallery the other day when a well known actress happened in. She stood a few moments watching the struggles of the sitter to assume a satisfactory expression. At last she offered a small suggestion. "If you will moisten the lips and slightly part them," said she, "you will find the face takes on a natural, unstrained expression at once. When the photograph is finished the mouth will not appear to be open in the least, but there, will be a soft line where the lips meet. The teeth will not show unless the lips are separated considerably. But as for that," she added, "many a face looks its prettiest with the teeth showing a wee bit-not displayed in a grin, you know. but merely suggested." The woman who was being taken took the advice, and the pictures turned out to be the most satisfactory she ever had posed

Care of Aluminium.

Aluminium utensils for the kitchen are becoming daily more popular on account of their light weight and cleanliness. They must never be washed with soda, soap and water being all that is required, with a little powdered whiting for polishing.

Ready For the Ball.

Chiffon cloth as a material for the evening frock has lost none of its well earned popularity. It lends itself beautifully to draping and is light and at the same time durable.

The cut displays another variant of the ubiquitous black and white crea-

PARTY PROCE OF CHIFFON CLOTH.

tions which this winter are to be seen in all modish attire

The black velvet sash and wide bands of white cluny lace give the frock an

THE HUMAN BRAIN.

Scientists Claim It Is Distributed All Over the Body.

Once it was believed that the gray matter of the brain was confined within the skull. Now physicians and other students of physiology tell us that this same 'gray" matter is found in other parts of the body-for instance. in the tips of the fingers of the blind. where the thinking has been consciously much exercised. One physician tells us there is little brain in the throat, and it often seems to be an independent thinking organ. An operator on the throat must become a friend and confidant of that little brain or his operation will not be successful. The little brain has a memory, and if the operator's hand has slipped and misused that throat the brain in the head may consent to the operation and desire it, but that little throat brain will resist even if it be months after the mistake, and if the operator persists the patient may be thrown into convulsions, such is the memory of that little brain.

And what has been discovered in the throat and in the finger tips will yet be discovered throughout the whole body, because we will consciously think in every part. At present much of the thinking is involuntary, not with the co-operation of the eye or central consciousness, but self knowledge brings you where you co-operate with yourself, and there are harmony and unity in all the activities of the body because of confidence throughout in the master of it.

The cells of your body can be seen as little selves or people, forming a government over which you exercigood rule by becoming acquainted with your people, educating pubsentiment in noble thinking, putting away internal strife, hatred and other forms of inharmony. Certain persons suffer because they have hatred and despised parts and functions of their bodies. Hatred withers, paralyzes and congests. No one can do his best under disapproval—seek out a way to think kindly generously, truly of your-self.—Detroit Free Press.

MORBID BLUSHING.

A Terrible Affliction That May Be Helped by Convex Glasses.

The essential cause of morbid blushing is a morbid temperament, says Dr. H. Campbell, M. R. C. P., in the Practitioner. A normal person may blush, but he is not greatly disturbed by it. He may be disconcerted for the time: but, the storm over, he soon forgets all about it. The morbid blusher, on the other hand, suffers mental torture. The blush throws him into a state of panic such as in the normal person can only be excited by some desperate experience. The anguish is so great that he lives in constant dread of being exposed to the conditions which excite it. This dread colors his entire life. He wakes up with it; he falls asleep with it. It haunts his dreams.

Morbid blushing is, in truth, a terrible affliction In its severe forms, Dr. Campbell says, it always calls up thoughts of suicide and not infrequently actually prompts it.

The female sex is more apt to blush than the male sex, although more men than women seek medical help for morbid blushing. Those who suffer from the complaint may gain some confidence by using strong convex glasses. The artificial myopia thus induced by blurring the surroundings tends to diminish self consciousness.'

In other words, distort the faces of people by means of spectacles and it will not matter to you how they look at you, for you will not notice them.

Russia's Parquetry Floors.

Most flooring put down in Russia is parquetry, and it is generally oak. Even in the unpretentious houses and flat buildings this parquetry is to be found. In some cases, of course, the finish is not so fine as in others, and in ordinary buildings the designs are not so elaborate. One of the most noticeable features of a Russian house is that rugs and carpets are used for wall decorations instead of floor coverings. Floor polishing by professionals, who come regularly once every week or ten days, is considered a part of the regular routine of running a house.-Detroit Free Press.

Churchyard Yew Trees. One reason given why very old yew trees are so often found in country churchyards is that originally these trees were planted to supply the peasants with wood for their bows, for in lawless times it was soon discovered that the only place where trees would be safe from nightly marauders was the churchyard, where the most bardened thief dared not venture between darkness and dawn.-London Mail.

A Philosopher.

"My! You wanted fried potatoes didn't you?" said the careless waitress as the customer in the restaurant finished his ment and rose to leave.

"That's all right," answered the pa tient man. "I've wanted so many things all my life that I didn't get I'm used to it."-Newark News.

Social Parasite.

"You needn't brag about your social connections if you do belong to an ristocratic family. Don't you work for a living?

"I work! How do I work?" "Everybody you can." - Baltimore American

An Exception.

"They say that lightning never strikes 'w'ce in the same place." "Doesn't it? I know a woman who's air of exclusiveness and style apart been married for her money three from the average magple party dress. times."-Detroit Free Press.

SKIRT NEWNESS.

A Smart Model In Magpie Effect.

PETTICOAT IN BLACK AND WHITE SILK

Fashion prefers little fullness in the silk underskirt. In many instances the knitted tights are used in preference to skirts of any kind.

Skirts are all straight and narrow in effect, but there's a tendency in the high class lines to slash at intervals at the foot, presumably to add to the walking comfort of the wearer. The striped silk petticoat seen in the illustration is cut on the newest lines. Black and white is the smart color scheme.

Unconventionalities.

"I'll do the best I can to make a musician of your boy, madam, but he'd succeed better as a window washer."

"I like the candy you bring me, Mr. Squallop, but your company bores me beyond measure." "Maria, there's going to be trouble

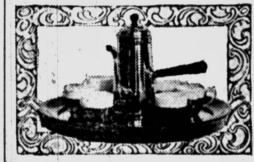

f you don't take your cold feet away from the small of my back!" "You know well enough. Uncle Jonathan, that we wouldn't entertain a disagreeable a man as you are if you weren't rich and childless." "Rinkle, you and I would get along all right if you'd move to some neighborhood where I never could see you." "Bobby, when you go home will you please tell your mamma that I think she ought to wash your face at least once or twice a week?"

For the Table.

Quite the latest and most approved appointment for the table is a coffee set of glass and copper.

COFFEE SET IN GLASS AND COPPER.

The illustration shows how very conrenient and good looking is the new Shadow Lace Veil.

The new shadow lace veiling is very charming and quickly gaining a place happy medium between the too heavily like a large watch, and in 1761 Harpatterned and often disfigured lace veil and the anything but smart veilngs made of open silk mesh which are very trying to all complexions. The new shadow veils are delicately patterned in a fine web effect, and some of the most becoming of all show a fine and 54.5 seconds delicately traced pattern in black silk on a pale pink tulle background that does much to enhance the beauty of mined within eighteen miles, a result any complexion that is apt to suffer disfigurement during the cold weather.

The Bar Brooch.

In every collection of beautiful ornaments the bar brooch finds a place. It is very long and absolutely rigid and is ornamented in various ways. One patrubies alternating, and another is a be made by others. Despite the fulthe center flanked by pearls of dwindling sizes to the tiniest possible gems at the ends.

Then again there is the absolutely plain gold bar brooch, which is used for various purposes, from fixing the squash hat in its place to securing the one sided jabot.

Useful Hints.

A cloth dipped in sait and rubbed on frosted windows will remove the thickest frost almost instantly. It may be news to some women to hear that a piece of bread burnt to a crust will remove grease on cloth if rubbed upon the spot, following the nap of the cloth.

It is also said that if the head of a match, after being lighted and then blown out, is applied to a stain from paint the spot will disappear.

OLD SHIP CLOCKS. Arlington Fire Alarm Location of Box

Crude Devices Mariners Used In Reckoning Time.

SANDGLASS MOST POPULAR.

If It Were Carefully Attended to the Skipper Could Tell the Days Fairly Well, but It Was Often Juggled-The First Chronometers.

To ascertain the time when at sea is now a matter of the utmost simplicity. But such was not the case in the old sailing days, and in order to acquire even the vaguest idea of longitude and time the seaman had recourse to curious devices.

Crude as these devices appear compared with present day instruments. they save the mariner from chaos and destruction, and even if he could not name the hour with any degree of certainty he at least knew the day of the week.

Eclipses of the moon and the positions of the stars afforded a little guide to the skipper, who was, nevertheless, greatly handicapped by his lack of astronomical knowledge and the inferior quality of his spyglass. Moreover, eclipses could not be arranged for every night in the week, and there were ery night in the week, and there were dark nights when the stars could not be seen, so various devices had to be pressed into service.

The most popular form of old sea clock was the sandglass. Many of these glasses were timed to run twenty-four hours, and prior to the ship leaving lend the close was cot executed.

2.Two blows for test at 6.45, a.m., 1 blow 12 o'clock noon, and two blows 6.45, p. m.

Two blows—Dismissal Signal.

3.Three blows twice—Second Alarm.

2.Shool Signal.

3.Bight blows—Forest Fire Signal, followed by two rounds of Box nearest fire.

10. Ten blows—Out of Town Signal.

12-12. Twelve blows twice—Police Call. leaving land the glass was set exactly at noon. If it were carefully watched and turned as soon as the sand ran down the skipper could reckon the days with fair accuracy.

Side by side with the large glass were placed half hour and minute glasses. The man at the helm carefully watched this old sea clock and announced the time at regular intervals by striking a bell. It was customary to estimate the duration of any incident by so many glasses. "To flog the glass" was an operation very congenial to lazy seamen. It consisted in turning the glass before all the sand had run down so that the watch was appreciably shortened.

When the twenty-four hour glass was employed a little juggling was indulged in for the purpose of finding the longitude The difference between the twenty four hour glass and the time by the sun was estimated and this difference was held to represent the longitude east or west, according as the sun's time might be before or after the time returned by the glass.

"Taking the sun" was a weird and wonderful operation. Clumsy quadrants were utilized, and toward midday the captain appeared on deck to perform his solemn duty. After much screwing of eyes and waggling of the quadrant the captain would bawl out to the mate. "Make it - bells!" the number varying according to personal idiosyncrasies.

A demand for a more satisfactory device for estimating time at sea was responsible for experiments being made with pendulum clocks, though with little success. The interest of inventors was aroused when the English government in 1714 offered £10,-000 to any one inventing a method of reckoning longitude to within a degree, or sixty miles; £15,000 if within forty miles and £20,000 if within thirty

John Harrison, an obscure Yorkshire carpenter, who had achieved a local reputation by repairing and cleaning clocks, came forward with a chronometer which at once attracted attention. Through the influence of Dr. Halley he was enabled to make a voyage in a government vessel to Lisbon, where he succeeded in determining the longitude to within 1 degree 30 minutes.

For this achievement he was granted £500 to enable him to proceed with his invention. After thirty years, hard toil he produced a chronometer on which the present marine chronometer in the world of fashion. This hits the is based. His invention was shaped rison's son embarked for Jamaica in order to carry out tests. On the voyage out the chronometer was only 5.1 seconds in error, and during the whole trip from Portsmouth to Jamaica and back the variation was only 1 minute

The accuracy of the chronometer thus enabled the longitude to be deterwhich exceeded the admiralty's most sanguine expectations. After further demonstrations an act of parliament was passed in 1765 awarding Harrison £20,000, half of the money to be paid as soon as he explained how his timekeeper was constructed and the remainder when the government was tern is set closely with emeralds and convinced that these timekeepers could flashing rivulet of brilliants from end fillment of these conditions. Harrison to end. A third has a large pearl in had to wait several years before the money was paid over.

Larcum Kendal, who had been Harrison's apprentice and who was ulti mately his successor, followed on the lines laid down by his master and produced a chronometer which was used by Captain Cook during his daring voyage in the Resolution. Of this rhronometer Cook wrote, "Our longitude can never be erroneous while we have so good a guide as Mr. Kendal's watch."

Various horologists have introduced o many improvements that little traof Harrison's model is to be discerne In the modern chronometer, though 'o him must be assigned the credit of pointing out the way.

The heart has reasons that reason loes not understand.-Bossnet.

Corner Mass. Avenue and Winter Street. Corner Mass. Avenue cor. Tufts Street. 162 Mass. Ave. bet. Palmer and Wyman St.

17 Lake Street, opposite D. Wyman's house.
21 North Union Street, opposite Fremont.
212 Broadway, near Gardner st. 221 Somerville Alarms. Town Hall (Police Station)

Junction Broadway and Warren Street

Beacon Street, near Warren. Hose 3 House, Broadway. Corner Medford Street and Lewis Avenue Corner Mystic and Summer Streets. Mystic Street, near Fairview Avenue

Kensington Park Pleasant Street, near Lake Street. Pleasant Street opp. Gray.
Pleasant Streets bet. Addison and Wallin Town Hall. Russell Street, corner Russell Terrace.

Academy Street, near Maple. Mass. Avenue near Mill Street Jason Street near Irving Mass. Avenue, near Schouler Court. 48 Corner Summer and Grove Streets

45 Hose a House, Massachusetts Avenue 46 Brattle Street, near R. R. Station 47 Massachusetts Avenue opp. Forrest Street Forest Street, north of R. R. tracks.

52 Westminister Avenue cor. Westmore 54 Cor. Park Avenue and Lowell St. 512 Elevated R. R. Car House. 61 Corner Florence and Hillside Avenues 63 Wallos on ave. opp. Wachusett ave.

64 Hose No. 1 House, Park Ave.

65 Appleton Street near Oakland Avenue 71 Massachusetts Avenue near Hibbert Street. SIGNALS.

WALTER H. PEIRCE, Chief. R. W. LEBARON, Supt. of Wires.

CHAS. T. HARTWELL

of the Philadelphia College Sanitary Science, Disinfection and Chemistry.

Will attend to all cases for fumigation or disin fection under the latest improved methods.

Office: 4 Medford St., Arlington, Mass

Call 'Em UP.

For the convenience of our readers we give clow a list of all our local advertisers who are nnected by telephone. The telephone is coming to be an absolute necessity for business men who wish to accommodate their customers, and at the same time secure orders by making it easy to communicate with them.

Arlington Police Station, Arlington Town Hall, Board of Selectmen Assessors' Office, 207-8 Town Engineer & Water Registrar, 207W Town Treasurer and Auditor. " Tax Collector, " Clerk, Arlington Insurance Agency, Geo. Y. Wellington & Son, Bacon, Arthur L., mason, J. F. Berton, painter and decorator 818L First National Bank of Arlington, 192 Fletcher, express, Gratto, William C. W. Grossmith, 172M Also, public telephone, Holt, James O., grocer, " provision dealer, 582 Hardy, N. J., caterer, 112 Hartwell, J. H. & Son, undertakers, 127L & 127E Hatfield, J. V. N., Carpenter Arlington 901 M Hilliard, R. W., insurance, Main, 3684 Keeley Institute, Lexington, 33 Kenty, Geo. W., carpenter, Arlington, 16 Locke, Frank A., piano tuner, Winthrop 517.2 Arlington, 16 Main 3757-9

Lexington Lumber Co., Lexington Town Hall, Lyman Lawrence, hardware, Lexington, 6-2 Marshall, A. A., Lexington, 249-1 and 2 Marston, C. F., Old Upham Market, 535 Marston, C. F., Old Upham Market, 299.8
Marston, O. B., 299.8
Myers, Alfred E., Jeweler, Haymarket 112
Muller, Wm., insurance Main, 3894
Nourse, A. L., Manicure, 7864
Osgood, Dr. H. B., dentist, Lexington, 121-1
Peirce & Winn Co., coal, 206-3
Parker, C. S. & Son, printers, 141
M. S. Parkhurst, 584M
Prince, W. A., provisions, 149-3
Reardon, E., florist, 96W
Shattuck, R. W. & Co., 114
Spaulding, Geo. W., Lexington, 28-3

Spaulding, Geo. W., Lexington, 200 Swan, James T., Public Accountant, Fort Hill 819 Taylor's London Furriers, Boston, Ox. 2695.4 Wellington, Frank Y., notary public, 408.4 Wetherbee, Bros., 414W Wood, Bros., Expressmer Yerxa & Yerxa, grocers, Hose 1,

If any of our advertisers have been inadver tently omitted from above list, and will ring us up, we shall be pleased to add their names in our next issue.

Boston Elevated Railway Co. SURFACE LINES. TIME TABLE.

Subject to change without netice. Arlington Centre to Hanover Street via Beacon et., Somerville), 4.37 5.17, a. m., and intervals of 20 minutes to 11.39, p. m. SUNDAY-7.09, a. m., and intervals of 20 80 minutes, to 11.39 p. m.

Arlington Heights to Subway. — 4.05 (to Harvard square), 5.04, a. m., and intervals of 15, 10, 8, and 7 minutes to 11.30 p. m. SUNDAY— 6.03, a. m., and it tervals of 20, 15, 7 and 8 minutes to 11.30 p. m. NIGHT SERVICE—to Adams sq. via Harvard Sq.—11.41, *12.05, 12.09, 12.39, 1.09, 1.39, 2.39, 8.39, 4.30, 4.45, (4.37, 5.37 a. m., Sunday), a. m.

Arlington Heights to Sullivan Termn's via Broadway. 5.13, a.m., and intervals of 15, 7 and 5 minutes to 11.58, night. SUNDAY—5.53, 6.23, a m., and intervals of 15 and 10 minutes to Arlington Centre Via Medford Hill-side.—5.05, 5.25, a.m. and intervals of 10, 15 and 20 minutes to 12.10, *12.29, *12.55, night. SUN-DAY—5.25, 6.36, a. m., and intervals of 10, 15 and 30 minutes to 12.10, *12.29, *12.55, night. *No connection with L trains.

Night Service to Adams Sq., (by Transfer at Winter Hill) 12.45, 1.30, 2.30, 3.30, 4.30 a m. Retur take Medford car leaves Adams Sq. 1.30, 2.30, 3.30, 4.30 a. m.

ELEVATED LINES.

Elevated trains run between Suilivan Square and Dudley street via the Tunnel, from 5.34, a. m., to 12.20, night. SUEDAY—5.54, a. m., to 12.20 night.

C. S. SERGEANT, Vice President. "North Stationia Subway.

Cookery Points

Two Ways to Bake Cookies Almond Cookies. - One-half pound of itter, one-half pound of sugar, three iks of eggs, one-half cupful of milk. ree cupfuls of flour, rind of one lemon ated, four teaspoonfuls of baking owder. Mix, roll out thin and cut into mall cookies with the following on op of each: Three whites of eggs reaten, three-fourths pound of pulverzed sugar, one-half pound of chopped ilmonds. Mix well together. Make his one hour before mixing cooky

Oatmeal Cookies.—Cream one cupful of butter, one and one-half cupfuls of ugar till light. Add three eggs beaten ight, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one espoonful of cinnamon, one cupful of hopped nuts, one-half cupful of raisins lended with flour, two cupfuls of oateal. Put nuts, oatmeal and raisins arough meat grinder. When thoroughmixed add two cupfuls of flour siftd twice and one teaspoonful of soda issolved in one tablespoonful and a alf of boiling hot water. Drop on ooky pans by teaspoonfuls and bake.

dough.

Sandwich Filling. Cold ham and cold chicken minced ogether make a most delicious filling r sandwiches. Fried ham ground fine always more savory than boiled ham r sandwiches. In fact, some persons the chicken which they are going use for sandwiches in order to get 10 delicate browned flavor. The potd meats which come for sandwich ings are more delicious if they are xed liberally with mayonnaise dress-And these same potted meats are eful in croquettes, souffles and other ande dishes. The smallest can of the ighly flavored potted meat mixed with he minced meat of which such dishes e to be made is sufficient to give & ch flavor to quite a large amount. alf of a small can is abundant with he meat for croquettes or souffle which s to serve four persons. Most of these leats have a bit of garlic and other igh seasonings which the American ousekeeper is unwilling to test for erself, but which she is willing enough o use if some one else, like the canner. makes the blend for her.

To Bake a Turkey.

Bake it with the breast down. In this way all the fine flavoring of the turkey, the juice of the dressing and ill the daintier juices flow down tovard the breast of the fowl, and when he white meat is served you get the full benefit of every flavor added durng the processes of preparing and bakng the turkey, in addition to the disinctive taste of the fowl itself. If you lesire to place the fowl on the table before carving you will find that it will look quite as well as it would if baked in the usual way, and certainly it will taste much better.

Walnut Coffee Cake.

One-half cupful of butter, one cupful sugar, one-half cupful of strong coffee infusion, one and three-fourths cupfuls of flour, two and one-half level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, whites of three eggs, one cupful of walnut meats broken in pieces.

Cream the butter, add gradually the sugar, then the coffee and the flour sifted with baking powder. Beat well and add the egg whites beaten stiff, then the nut meats. Beat again and bake in shallow pan in moderate oven for forty-five minutes. When cool covr with frosting.

Creamed Celery.

Take the white stalks and hearts of wo bunches of celery and boil in saltd water until nearly tender. Drain end put in a dish to keep hot while he sauce is prepared. Put into a aucepan two tablespoonfuls each of outter and flour and as soon as melted idd half a cupful of the water in which the celery was cooked and a generous cup of cream. Cook until hick and smooth, season with salt and pepper, pour over the celery, grate a little nutmeg over the top and serve.

Creamed Oysters.

Splendid for lunches, teas, card parties, etc., a dainty and delicious way for serving oysters. Scald one pint oysters in one pint of boiling water, then drain. Put the water in the saucepan with two tablespoonfuls of butter. a little mace, two bay leaves and salt and pepper. Let it come to a boil and add a tablespoonful of cracker crumbs and half a pint of cream / Let it come to a boil and add the oysters and then cook two minutes more. Serve on toast.

Molasses Candy.

One cupful of New Orleans molasses. one cupful of brown sugar, a teaspoonful of vinegar, an ounce of butter. Mix together and boil, being careful not to stir until the sirup hardens in cold water. Stir in a teaspoonful of baking soda and pour into buttered plate, When cold enough pull with the ends of the fingers.

To Salt Almonds

Put the shelled almonds into boiling water to loosen the skins, Rub off the skins, dry the almonds and put them into a spider of boiling olive oil. When they have come to a nice brown drain, put on waxed paper and sprinkle with Card Etiquette.

Leaving cards instead of calling is the usual procedure after going to entertainments. In this case there is no necessity to ask if the hostess is at home, but there is one exception to this rule, and that is a dinner party. after which the guest usually makes a call on the hostess, and it is only in the event of the hostess not being at home that cards are left.

A husband's cards are left in any case unless the husband accompanies his wife in making the call.

When a married lady calls on a widow she leaves one of her own cards on not finding her at home and one of her husband's, if he is not acquainted with ber, if it is her first call.

A daughter living at home has her name printed under that of her mother on her visiting card, or, if there is no mother, under the name of her father. When the daughters have ceased to be regarded as young girls and have many friends and acquaintances of their own they always have visiting cards of their own.

It is, however, desirable that mothers should be on visiting terms with their daughters' friends, even in these days, when mothers and daughters have each their own special circles, so it is far better for a girl as long as she is living with her mother to have her name printed on her mother's cards. even if she still thinks it necessary to have for use in some cases her own' private cards.

It is very important to study the side issues which may crop up on the question of card leaving, as otherwise offense may be given where none was in-

After wedding receptions cards may be left, and this should never be postponed later than one week after the ceremony has taken place.

When inquiries during illness are made the rule is to leave one card only for the person who is ill or in any bereavement.

The Week End Visit.

There are few lives whose routine excludes the week end visit and few such excursions that do not call for careful planning beforehand and for some thought and self restraint while the excursion lasts.

The woman who sets forth upon one of these little trips will naturally desire both to look and to feel her best and brightest. But it is not always easy to do this, because the thingsthat have been contributed to one's well being at home may not be obtain able during the visit, and the time for rest, relaxation and the little toilet ritual on which one's looks are largely dependent may not easily be obtain able either. Before starting off it is well to take just what will be needed and nothing that will be a burden and a space occupier. It may not be possible after an evening of bridge or dancing to give oneself all the care that has been a matter of regular routine at home. But that is no reason for neglecting oneself as much as one is often tempted to do, fortified by the thought.

"I can rest up at home." In packing be careful to have a good cold cream and enough of it. More than one visitor may come into your room for a dressing gown chat and cry delightedly: "Oh, you have some fine cream! I quite forgot to bring any. and my skin is like a nutmeg grater after that ride. Can you spare a little?" And you have no alternative You must graciously assure her that she is welcome, even though your own skin is the one that becomes like a nutmeg grater in consequence. So take plenty. Take two jars and do not exhibit both.

It is well to make a list on some calm day when no visit is in sight of the things to be packed when that delightful emergency arises. Besides the two jars of cream, it will be well to put down four kinds of powder-face powder, talcum powder, foot powder and bath powder in case of hard wa ter. One or two extra nailbrushesquite cheap ones-may come in useful ly if a muddy skirt has to be made respectable and your hostess' domestic force is not equal to coping with muddy skirts.

Good Form In Dress.

Don't wear colored or fancy openwork stockings with your street shoes Choose plain stockings that match the shoes in color:

Don't pin ruchings and dress shields in place. Baste them instead and see how much more comfort they give you It really doesn't take much longer to baste than to pin.

Don't think that because collarless frocks are the fashion you may wear a low cut dress on the street. There le a vast difference between "collarless" and "low necked."

Don't buy cheap jewelry and think that it looks like anything but what It is-a cheap imitation of a good article. Much jewelry is in bad taste at any time except with evening dress Don't wear mussed or soiled frills and ruching. You had much better wear perfectly plain clothes without trimmings if you cannot keep these dainty accessories fresh and without soil.

Don't forget to see that your waist is properly fastened before leaving your mirror. The waist gaping open at the back not only looks careless, but it is apt to cause some embarrassment too | gustine.

CLEMENS THE BOY

The Budding Humprist Was the Terror of His Mother.

HE YEARNED TO BE A PIRATE

Cruising the Mississippi, Fishing, Swimming and Marauding Struck Him as the Ideal Life-The Stick He Selected For His Own Whipping.

Mark Twain the boy was leader of a band of young incorrigibles, according to Albert Bigelow Paine, Twain's secretary and biographer, who in Harper's tells something of their juvenile goings on:

His mother declared that he gave her more trouble than all the other children put together.

"He drives me crazy with his didoes when he is in the house," she used to If speech were correct many rimes would say, "and when he is out of it I am expecting every minute that some one will bring him home half dead."

He did, in fact, achieve the first of his 'nine narrow escapes from drowning" about this time and was pulled out of the river one afternoon and brought home in a timp and unpromising condition. When with mullein tea and castor oil she had restored him to activ ity she said

"I guess there wasn't much danger. People born to be hanged are safe in

She declared she was willing to pay somebody to take him off her hands for a part of each day and try to teach him manners.

Besides his mother, who had to contend with the bad boy, was his schoolteacher, a certain Miss Horr. Mr. Paine tells how unlike to a bed of roses was her lot.

Miss Horr received 25 cents a week for each pupil and opened her school with prayer, after which came a chapter of the Hible, with explanations and the rules of conduct. Then the A B C class was called, because its recital was a hand to hand struggle, requiring no preparation.

The rules of conduct that first day interested little Sam. He calculated how much he would need to trim in to sail close to the danger line and still avoid disaster. However, he made a miscalculation during the forenoon and received warning. A second offense would mean punishment. He did not mean to be caught the second time. but he had not learned Miss Horr yet and was presently startled by being commanded to go out and bring a stick for his own correction.

This was certainly disturbing. It was sudden, and then he did not know have nabbed me for picking up his lanmuch about the selection of sticks Jane Clemens had usually used her hand. It required a second command to get him headed in the right direction, and he was a trifle dazed when he got outside. He had the forests of Missouri to select from, but choice was on the field." difficult. Everything looked too big and competent. Even the smallest switch had a wiry, discouraging look. Across the way was a cooper shop with a good many shavings outside. One had blown across and lay just in front of him. It was an inspiration. He picked it up and, solemnly enter-

Perhaps Miss Horr's sense of humor prompted forgiveness, but discipline must be maintained.

to Miss Horr.

"Samuel Langhorne Clemens," she said (he had never heard it all strung together in that ominous way), "I am ashamed of you! Jimmy Dunlap, go bring in a switch for Sammy." And Jimmy Dunlap went, and the switch was of a sort to give the little boy an immediate and permanent distaste for he went home at noon that he did not care for school; that he had no desire to be a great man; that he preferred I haven't encountered it anywhere in to be a pirate or an Indian and scalp my journeyings.-Chicago Tribune. or drown such people as Miss Horr.

Young Sam conceived the notion that a pirate's life would be joyous and, with a couple of pals, cruised the Mississippi.

Some of their expeditions were innocent enough. They often cruised up to Turtle island, about two miles above Hannibal, and spent the day feasting. You could have loaded a car with turtles and their eggs up there and there were quantities of mussels and plenty of fish. Fishing and swimming were their chief pastimes, with general marauding for adventure. Where the railroad bridge now ends on the Missouri side was their favorite swimming hole -that and along Bear creek, a secluded, limpid water with special interests of its own. Sometimes at evening they swam across to Glasscock's island, the rendezvous of Tom Sawyer's "Black Avengers" and the hiding place of Huck and Nigger Jim. Once, though this was considerably later, when he was sixteen. Sam Clemens swam across to the Illinois side and then turned and swam back again without landing, a distance of at least two miles as he had to go. He was seized with a cramp on the return trip. . His legs became useless, and he was obliged to make the remaining distance with his arms. It was a hardy life they led. and it is not recorded that they ever did any serious damage, though they narrowly missed it sometimes.

A Close Relation

Bess-What do you think? Her aunt brought Tess only a string of cheap beads from Europe. Jess-Well, what more could she expect from a close relation?-Lippincott's.

Blessedness consists in the accomplishment of our desires and in our having only regular desires.—St. AuA HANDY HELPER.

When you want to rime "ever" with Why, dialect's right at your hand. With scarcely a quiver you write it as (That's "Irisher talk," understand.) If you want to chime "splashing" and "fashion"

It's easy as ever can be.

For "splashing" and "fashion" and "crashing" and "passion"

Will rime if you cut out the "g."

If you want to rime "pillow" with "mill-It's really dead easy to do-

Convert it to "piller" and willow to "wil-And there are your verses for you You can always chime "yellow" with "tell-

Or "can" very nicely with "spin," "ought to" with "water" and "slaugh-ter" and "daughter," For that's where the patois comes in

So dialect's lovely for poets. It lets them use many near rimes, Like "narrer" for narrow and "sparrer" for sparrow be wrecked-And I couldn't have written this "pome!" -Berton Braley in Puck.

And such orthographical crimes. Yes, dialect's handy for rimesters Wherever they wander or roam.

In the Family.

Grass Widower-Yes; I married one. -New York Mail.

A Classic Tale Explained. It was late at night. The officer stopped Diogenes. "What are you doing?" asked the of-

"I am looking for an honest man," was the shrewd response. Muttering to himself, the policeman

"By finks!" said Diogenes. "If I hadn't come back at him like that he'd

A Diplomat.

"Yes," said the tramp, who was explaining his method, "I always tell the lady of the house that I was injured

"What field?" asked the inexperienced beginner. "Well, if it's a young lady I say football field, and if it's an old lady I say battlefield."-London Tit-Bits.

His Honest Pride.

"Say, Weary, I see that some feller ing the schoolroom, meekly handed it in congress is goin' to ask the government to give work to everybody." "Say, what do you think of that! Well, you can tell the feller if you see him that I've got a little too much pride to depend f'r me livin' on the bounty of anybody's government." - Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Invisible.

First Foreign Tourist-Since I've been here I've heard once or twice school. He informed his mother when about a "western reserve." Do you know where it is?

Second Ditto-Don't believe it exists.

Same Old Kind, "What is that 'dollar diplomacy' they're talking about?" asked the good natured man. "Same old kind we've always had." exclaimed the thin man. "It means that only billionaires can afford to be ambassadors."-Popular Magazine.

Orthodox.

"If St. James' Bible was good enough for St. Paul it is good enough for me." This was the emphatic protest of a New England deacon against the reading of the revised instead of the King James version.-Congregationalist.

Determined.

Gillet-What did you pay that world famous specialist $50 for if you felt

Perry-I wanted to know how he pronounced appendicitis.—New York

A Beginning. Poots-I tell you, there's an indescribable sense of luxury in lying in bed and ringing one's bell for one's valet.

Friend-You have a valet? Poots-No, but I've got a bell-Smart

A Hypocrite. Pa, what's a hypocrite?"

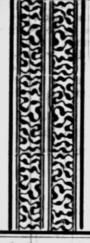

A man who pretends that he isn't mad when his wife rearranges the drawers and puts his shirts where he ean't find them."-Chicago Record-Her-

Friendly. "The people next door seem anxious to be friendly." "How do you get that idea?" "They have busted their phonograph."-Houston Post.

WHY NOT

Be a Subscriber ---

Nothing can fill the place of a local paper like this one . . .

١	1912 JANUARY 1912 SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT
	SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
		1	2	3	4	5	6
	7						13
	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
					25	26	27
	28	29	30	31

SHANNER SHIPS

High Toned, Clean in every way; bright, newsy, - it is like sunight in the home

Have it delivered FREE, instead of paying more for it at the agency and having to go for it each week . .

Good Work Low Prices Promptness

THESE FORM THE FOUNDATION ON WHICH se se se

C. S. PARKER & SON

base solicitation of orders from those not familiar with the past history of the office and who perhaps do not know how

Splendidly Equipped

are the commodious and well fitted rooms

446 Massachusetts Ave., ARLINGTON, MASS., to execute promptly and in highest style of the art, any thing pertaining to

Job Printing

Also, Books, Pamphlets, Folders, etc., etc.

WE STRIVE TO PLEASE

THE PAUSE AT DINNER

Grim Story of an Englishman's Banquet in Egypt.

How completely in any domestic emergency the master can count on his Berber servants is illustrated by this grim anecdote from Mrs. E. L. Butcher's book. "Egypt as We Knew It." An Englishman of very high rank in the Egyptian service wished to give in his own house a dinner party to the prime minister and other Egyptian and English notables. He was a bachelor and did not often entertain, but he spoke to his servants and told them that he particularly wished the dinner to be successful.

The Egyptian, or, rather, Berber, servant has a quick sense for the honor of "our house." as every good servant calls his master's abode. So the servants bestirred themselves, and the guests sat down to an excellent dinner beautifully served.

Good fish succeeded good soup, and then there was a pause. The host talked his best, but began to feel nervous. However, after a delay hardly long enough to attract the notice of the guests the even procession of dishes began again, and the evening was most successful.

After the guests had departed the host said a word of praise to his head servant and then remarked:

"By the way, there was rather a long wait after the fish. Why was that?" "May it please your excellency, the cook died of cholera."

"What!" But investigation put the fact beyond a doubt. The cook, attacked at the last moment, but anxious for the honor of the house. had worked on till he fell dead at his post, and his body had been then hastily laid aside. and the marmiton finished the cooking.

I learned this story after the Englishman had left the country. I never heard that any of the guests suffered or even knew what had happened.

FEAT OF A MACGREGOR.

Wonderful Physical Strength That Was Used to Good Purpose.

Sir William MacGregor was the Lero of such an adventure as one expects ordinarily to read about only in fiction of a certain hue.

The steamship Syria, with a lot of Indian coolies on board, struck on a rock about twelve hours from Suva. the capital of Fiji.

Dr. MacGregor, then acting colonial secretary, organized a relief expedition, clambered over a broken mast that was the only path to the emigrants and again and again returned with a man or woman on his back and sometimes a child, held by its clothes between his teeth. A man of vast physical strength. MacGregor wanted it all for his final feat. Down below on the reef was a woman who had fallen overboard, had got at the spirits and was mad with drink. The captain of the ship and a police officer who had gone after her were being swept out to sea. Mac-Gregor slid down a rope, caught the knot of the woman's hair in his teetb and with his hands seized the two men and dragged them both into safety. He went back to Suva in a borrowed suit of pajamas, having left all his clothes and a good deal of his skin on the coral reef.

Modest, like many heroes. Mac-Gregor left himself out of his own report, and it was from the governor that the queen first heard the whole story.-London Graphic.

The Name of Arizona. Arizona, probably Arizonac in its original form, was the native and probably Pima name of the place of a hill, valley, stream or some other local feature just south of the modern boundary, in the mountains still so called, on the headwaters of the stream flowing past Saric, where the famous Planchas de Plata mine was discovered in the middle of the eighteenth century, the name being first known to the Spaniards in that connection and being applied to the mining camp or real de minas. The abortginal meaning of the term is not known. The name should probably be written and pronounced Arisona, as our English sound of z does not occur in Spanish.-II H. Bancroft, "History of the Pacific States.

Charles Reade as He Ate. One of the strangest men in regard to his diet was Charles Reade. Writing about his meals at the Garrick club, one of his friends placed one of his menus on record: "He took a cauliflower, flanked by a jug of cream, as first course and a great salad to follow. washed down by curious drinks of the shandy-gaff order. He would drink coffee associated with sweets, black pudding and toasted cheese to the amazement of any onlooker."

A Comfortable Roll. There is a Philadelphia sporting man who is famous for the roll he always carries. Another man said to him one

"I suppose in strange hotels you always put your roll under your pillow,

"No; oh, no." said the sporting man. "I couldn't sleep with my head so high."-Exchange.

He Moved Away. There was a merchant in our town who was not wondrous wise; he vowed that he could get along and never advertise. His rivals now are all convinced that advertising pays, for he was forced to get along in less than ninety days. - Chicago Journal.

Happiness and misery are the names of two extremes, the utmost bounds whereof we know not -Locks.

Fauvre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maus Fauvre, to Thomas L. Wiles, of Arlington, took place Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Keemah, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fauvre, Indianapolis. The attendants were Harry Sawyer, of Boston, the best man; Mrs. Arthur Vonnegut, a sister of the bride, matron of honor, and Elizabeth Fauvre, the young sister of the bride, the flower girl. The Rev. M. L. Haines officiated the young sister of the bride, the flower girl. The Rev. M. L. Haines officiated with only the immediate family present. The wedding march music was the march from Lohengrin and the theme from the quartet from "Rigoletto" for the ceremony. The house was decorated with French baskets with pink begonias and the ceremony window had a background of palms with baskets of flowers tied with tulle at either side, and on the mantel.

The bride's gown was of filet lace over white satin with a tunic of embroidered net, the veil a short one and the bouquet a shower of lilles of the valley and pink begonias. Mrs. Vonnegut's gown was of illes of the valley and white gauze in which sprays of pink begonias were tied. The flower girl was in white batiste and Irish lace and she carried a basket of pink begonias. Mrs. Fauvre wore green, veiled in black marquisette, embroidered in gold. The bridal table had for its centerplece a basket of frosted candy grapes surrounded with Dresden vases of the candy and the puck.

He a special bottle pin match with the club house. As there was no bottle pin league formed this year, it has been the policy of president Brooks to hold as many special matches with other clubs as possible, that the big pin enthusiasts might have some spirited contests. Next Saturday, Jan. 13th, the Boat Club will be the guests of the Commercial Club at Brockton, in a ten-men bottle pin match.

Hockey Games.

Arlington High hockey seven opened its senson Saturday afternoon on Hill's reservoir, with a 4 to 3 victory over the school alumai. The High's forward line showed flashes of team work and repeatedly took the puck into the alumni's territory, only to lose it by making bad shots at the goal. Ross and Bower played well together and scored three of the four goals. Hadley was the individual star for the Alumni and gave a prefty exhibition of dribbing the puck.

Arlington.

Arlington. He club hadle of the care of the club as special matches with other clubs as possible, that the big pin enthusiasts might the club as po centerpiece a basket of frosted candy grapes surrounded with Dresden vases filled with begonias, which were the guest favors. The others of the company occupied places at small tables. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles' wedding trip is to the Bermudas and they will be at home at 38 Academy street, Arlington, Mass., after March 1. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. W. H. Wiles, attended the wedding.

The remodeling of the social rooms of the Arlington Unitarian church was completed in season for the annual New Year party which was instituted as many as thirty-five years ago at this church and possibly more, on Friday, Dec. 29th, when the children gathered in the afternoon for a merry time, and the adults for the supper, served soon after six o'clock, and the entertainment which followed. The improvements, which have worked such a radical change, were seen a seen of the Arlingtons, composed of former High school stars, defeated the Crescents, of Arlington Heights on Hill's Reservoir, Saturday afternoon, 4 to 0. The defensive work of Cameron, Kelley and McCarthy was too strong for their opponents, who were unable to shoot any goals. Henderson and Duffy excelled for the Arlingtons and shot the first two goals. Hemenway and F. Smith played well for the Crescents.

The lineup:

Arringtons. worked such a radical change, were seen at great advantage at this time and were admired by all. The white enameled paint contrasts with handsome effect with pale amber walls and mahoganized doors, while the electric light fixtures are handsome and so arranged that there is a soft glow diffused through all the rooms.

Mrs. H. A. Martin was chairman of the committee in charge of the supper and was assisted by Mrs. H. H. Homer, Mrs. A. T. Marston, Mrs. C. H. Stevens, Mrs. A. T. Marston, Mrs. C. H. Stevens, Mrs. A. T. Marston, Mrs. J. R. Foster and Miss Hodgdon. These ladies served a delicious repast in the ladies' parlor and the kindergarten room, both of which, by wide sliding doors, can be thrown into one room and comfortably seat a hundred and fifty at table. Mrs. J. A. Bailey, Jr., assisted by Mrs. B. A. Norton, had charge of the dining room and the young ladies of the parish were the waitresses. The tables were decorated with pots of The tables were decorated with pots of pink begonias and looked very handsome.

Following supper the company adourned to the large vestry, which is now a very spacious room, owing to the removal of the two heaters which used to occupy so much room and were a dispastor, wished all a happy new year and, in a few brief words, told those present the president of the Women's Alliance, ing of the church, her persistence and enhe gave honorable mention to Mr. Fred Theentertainment was a pleasing adaptacharm which is childhood's own perogrative. Mrs. Benj. S. Baker directed the pretty songs and Mrs. C. D. Cobb staged the scenes. The children appeared against a background of spruce trees and "the pictures" were set in a gold frame. The little ones were loudly encored and certainly they were as pretty as pictures. The children taking part were as follows:

Mother Goose, Elizabeth Stevens; Mary's Garden, Mary Eleanor Drouett, other children, Virginia Wellington, Polly Bullard, Sue Bullard, Barbara Bullard, Elizabeth Cobb, Lydia Baker, Phillis Blake; Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star, Lydia Baker; Dolly and her Mamma, Virginia Wellington; Bo-Peep, Helen Foster, with chorus consisting of girls before mentioned and Alderson Bailey, Edward Bailey, Henry Adams, William Homer; Jack Honor, Edward Bailey; I love little pussy, Elizabeth Cobb; Boy Blue, William Homer with chorus (same as Bo-Peep); Little cock sparrow, Alderson Bailey; I had a little doggie, Barbara Bullard; Tommy Tucker, Heury Adams, with chorus.

A. B. C. Notes.

One of the most successful concerts of the season was held at the club-house on Tuesday evening, Jan. 2nd, the attraction being the Lotus Male Quartette and Phyllis Hammond, harpist. The audi-ence was the largest in the history of the club, there being about 350 present. The capacity of the club house was taxed to its limits, many being unable to find seats in the hall and were obliged to stand in the adjoining rooms. This quartette is considered the best in the musical field to-day and two years ago was offered ten thousand dollars per year by Wanamaker of Philadelphia, to sing in that city, his offer being refused. Not only are the individual voices of finished quality, but such perfect balance and blending Recitation, illustrated by lantern slides, "A Visit from St. Nicholas," Miss Alice of tone is something rarely heard. While all the numbers were highly pleasing the Miserere from Il Trovatore was the gem of the evening. Miss Hammond's solos on the harp were exceedingly well done and made a pleasing contrast to the rest of the program.

The Boat Club was very much off form at the Colonial Club at Dorchester, Monday night, in the Amateur Boston Pin League, losing all four points. As a re-sult of the bowling among the teams of this league the same night, the B. A. A. moves into first place, the Dudley Club advanced into third place and our club is tled for fourth place with the Colonial free lunch and other attractions, should make it a very enjoyable evening. Come

The Boat Club bowls the Newtowne Club at Cambridge next Tuesday evening, Jan. 9th, in the Boston Pin League.

ARLINGTON.	ALUMNI.
Bower, f	f, Hadley
Percy, W. Rey	croft, ff, Robbins
Lowe, p
Score : Arlin	gton High 4, Alumni 3. Goals,
Ross 2, Bower,	Percy, Hadley 2, H. Reycroft.

	ARLINGTONS.	CRESCENTS.
١	Johnson, f	f, F. Smith
	Henderson, f	f, J. Smith
1	Page, f	f, McLellan
	Duffy, f	f, Hemenway
	Dann, cp	c p, Cameron
	White, p	p. Kellev
	Hurley, g.	p, Kelley
	Score, Arling	tons 4, Crescents 0. Goals,
	Johnson, Hend	erson, Dunn, Page. Referee,
	Hurd. Goal u	mpires, Winslow and Birch.
1	Timer Wells	Time two 10-minute halves

Arlington boys, played with Boston Ath- ness Men's Association held an interestletics, the former having the best show ing meeting in the banquet hall in the in the game and proved a star player, The team was crippled by absentees among the regular players.

Displaying team work and individual figuring feature. Rev. Frederic Gill, the hockey skill that smacked of midseason form, and without evidencing in the least way any lack of practise, the Arlington It was voted to ask the Selectmen to reguhow largely indebted the parish was to High school hockey team Tuesday afternoon opened its regular season on Spy Mrs. J. A. Bailey, Jr., for the remodel- Pond, defeating the Stoneham High team, 5 to 0. The home seven was superior at terprise taking the lead in this important all stages and throughout the game the and most gratifying work. Then again puck hovered in the vicinity of the Stoneham goal. The losing team showed F. Low, the architect, whose skill, ex- flashes of speed, but most of these were ceptional taste and ingenuity are to be the result of individual work. Buttrick left with the grievance committee to inobserved in all the improvements. Mr. and Scully, the Arlington goal guardians, Gill's remarks were received with loud had but three stops to make between them during the game. The playing of Bower and Ross was the principal feation of Mother Goose Melodies in which ture. The other forwards were much in a groupe of charming little children were evidence and the whole line worked well seen and acted their parts with all the together. Cronin and Holden played well for the losers.

Well for the los	010.
ARLINGTON H.	S. STONEHAM H. S.
Landall (Blair), f	f., Boekus
Bower, f,	f., Holden
Ross, f,	f., Cronin,
Percy, f,	f., Dempsey
	c p., Freeman
Lowe, p	p., Mirick
Buttrick (Scully),	g., Hansell
Score, Arlington	High school 5, Stoneham
High school 0. G	oals, Ross 3, Bower 2. Referees. Osgood and	Frannan. Umpire, Plaisted.
Timer Jardine	lime, 20-min. halves.
'Ch - 4-11	1 - 1 - AL L - A - A

=The following is the schedule of games of Arlington High hockey team :-Brookline High at Arlington. Medford High at Arlington.

Newton High at Brae-Burn. Somerville High at Arlington. Boston English High at Arlington Jan. 15.

Stone School at Arlington.
Winchester High at Winchester. open.
*Rindge M. T. S. at the Arena.
Cambridge High and Latin at Arl-Jan. 29, Feb. 3,

*Somerville High at the Arena.

open. Woburn High at Woburn. Medford High at Medford. Melrose High at the Arena.

Feb. 19, Dean Academy at Franklin. Wellesley High at Wellesley.

Mother Goose Party.

The holiday party for the primary and Cradle Roll children." of the First Baptist Sunday school, was held New Year's afternoon, about one hundred children and sixty grown-ups being present. When all had assembled in the chapel, an entertainment consisting of the following er son, Marshall, with them. In the program was given, including songs and carols and recitations:-

Slides shown by Miss Frances Wyman.
Recitation, "Santa Claus' Cake," Ernestine Marshall.

Microscope, showing post card pictures on screen, loaned and operated by Louise Dialogue, "Reformation in the Christmas

Christmae Dialogue, "Reformation in the Goose Family."

Mother Goose, Miss Maud Prye; Tom the Piper's Son, Arthur Allen; Mistress Mary, Emily Berry; Jack, George Moore; Jill; Beatrice White; Miss Muffet, Ernestine Marshall; Tommie Tucker, Elmer Schwamb; Simple Simon, Leon Ogilvie; Jack Horner, Clarence Powers; Bo-Peep, Florence Leetch, Tom Tittlemouse, Edwin Tobey; Boy Blue, John Crosby.

At the close of the last number, Mother We understand there will be some in- Goose summoned Santa Claus, who apformal music and singing at the club this peared, impersonated by Miss Eberhardt, with stories by Miss Rice, distributed gay boxes of candy to the little folks. Then all were invited into the banquet hall, where after a few games, refreshments were served. The room had been very handsomely decorated by Miss Fisher's class with fir trees, holly and red crepe Monday, Jan. 8th, our team bowls the Towanda Club, at Woburn, in the Mystic Valley League.

To-night, Friday, Jan. 5th, there will be a special bottle pin match with the Boston Athletic Asso'n at the club house. As there was no bottle pin league formed this year, it has been the policy of president Brooks to hold as many special matches with other clubs as possible, that the big pin enthusiasts might have some the policy of the Sunday school arranged the larger part of the program, and assisted generated.

part of the program, and assisted generally in the afternoon's entertainment, taking that to do as their Christmas work. To them and to the teachers and officers of the Primary Dept., especially Mrs. Atwood the superintendent, much praise is due for their successful efforts to provide a pleasurable covasion for so large. vide a pleasurable occasion for so large a

ARLINGTON LOCAL NEWS.

Continued from 1st page. sion is charged and a limited number of tickets are to be had at Perham's Pharmacy on the first come first served plan. The church quartette will give variety to the program with vocal selections.

=The Samaritan Society of the Univer-salist church was organized seventy years ago the 12th of this month. The anniversary will be celebrated next Monday afternoon, the 8th, at three o'clock, with appropriate exercise. Mrs. W. N. Winn vited to be present.

=Senior-Vice Department Commander George A. Hosley will be the installing officer to induct into office the comrades who are to have charge of affairs in Post 36, G. A. R., the ensuing year. As usual the comrades plan for a good time and will inaugurate it with a supper at 6.30, to which town officials and prominent people have been invited. The ritual service will be followed by a "camp fire" run in the style of former years.
All this occurs on the evening of Thursday, Jan. 11.

=On New Year's day Mrs. Willis P. Howard, 50 Fairview avenue, gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Daniel C. Howard. The guests were Mrs. Salome Fischer, Mrs. S. E. Kimball, Mrs. Henry Rollins, Mrs. Ellen Read, Mrs. Fannie L. Hawkins, Mrs. L. S. Woods, Mrs. Mil-

Associates' Building, last Tuesday evening. After the supper Prest. Walter K. Hutchinson called the meeting to order. Some considerable time was consumed in the discussion of the new "Workingman's Compensation Act," a number of members giving their views on the matter. late the speed of the street railway cars on Mass. avenue. The matter of the freight trains blocking Water street in the early morning was taken up and discussed, and it was voted to try and have the matter remedied through the station agent here. Conditions at the local freight vards were talked over, and were vestigate them and see what may be done to regulate matters.

=The old year closed with a union service, last Sabbath morning, of the Universalist and Unitarian societies of this town, held in the latter church. The storm prevailing and the rather bad walking depleted the congregation, no doubt, in a considerable measure, still the attendance would be considered good under these conditions. The special feature of the musical program was the solo by Miss Jean McClellan, whose voice rang out clear and sweet in "Ring Out, Wild Bells," arranged from Tennyson's poem. There were two addresses, the first by Rev. Frank Lincoln Masseck of the Universalist church, who spoke from the subject, "A glance backward," followed by Rev. Frederic Gill, with one on "A glance forward." Mr. Masseck offered congratulations on the success and beauty of the remodelled First Parish church, and then went on to show how the past is helpful and instrumental in making our future happy and successful. Mr. Gill took the occasion to thank the church which had extended generous hospitality while his congregation was debarred from their own church home. He pointed out how it is within our power to mould our future.

Sabbath afternoon, towards Winchester from Arlington, on Cambridge street of that town, Mr. Arthur W. Wood of 34 Jason street, came in collision with an auto owned by Mr. Huntress, near the junction of Everett street. Mrs. Wood was the only one injured by the impact. She was badly bruised and cut on the face and head and a deep gash was cut in the forehead, which required several stitches to close the wound. She received stitches to close the wound. She received the force of the flying glass of the broken right hand by falling on a low wire fence. Huntress machine were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Huntress, Jr., their child, and Miss Marguerite French, while the machine was in charge of a chauffeur. The Wood machine, it is said, was in the middle of the street and as the other car tried to pass in front of it Mr. Wood swung to the right of the road. The left front wheel of the Huntress machine caught the left rear wheel of the Wood car and a wheel, hood and windshield of the Huntress car was smashed. The rear wheel and axle of the Wood automobile were broken. Mrs. Wood was taken to the home of J. H. Garlach on Everett avenue, where she was attended by Dr. =The somewhat numerous pictures hanging in the social rooms of the priatedly and attractively reframed in which was listened to with marked interweek Saturday evening. This, with the and with appropriate remarks interspersed gilt by Foster Bros., Park Sq., Boston.

Suburbanites

If you are seeking an INEXPENSIVE but EFFICIENT residence telephone service, consider these specifications:

$24 for 480 calls, usable to any exchange in the Metropolitan District within an eightmile radius of the calling exchange.

All calls in excess of 480 to any of these exchanges within an eight-mile radius, three cents each.

For this service there is supplied a two-party line with divided ringing; that is, only one person, besides yourself, on the line and no bell to be heard except your own.

If this outline interests you, call the Contract Department, Fort Hill 7600, and give your order. New contracts or changes that can be completed in time will have correct call numbers listed in the Next Telephone Directory, now going to press. A call to Fort Hill 7600 may be made, without charge, from any telephone or Pay Station in the Metropolitan District.

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Commercial Department

NC. WADLEIGH, Treasurer,

J. L. A. CHELLIS, Manager Telephone 42M

B. MARSTON CO. GENERAL CONTRACTORS

All kinds of plain Mill Work

Metal Ceilings put up Jobbing promptly attended to Shop. 9 SWAN PLACE.

Frank V. Noyes & Company

THOMPSON SO., - CHARLESTOWN, MASS

Member of Firm of Gharles Haas & Co. 30 Kilby St., Boston.

Telephones \ \frac{10}{11}

Insurance of All Classes.

The largest and best Stock and Mutual Companies at lowest prices.

Special attention to care and management of Real Estate

Mr. J. R. Foster and wife are active in the parish and this was a generous contibution on his part towards the church remodeling improvements. His little daughter presented the Sunday school, as a Christmas gift, a large copy of the painting, "Christ and the Elders," hand-somely framed in gold and which is a great acquisition to the vestry.

=Members of Combination A were out =While driving his automobile last on two still alarms last week Friday, one being for a grass fire near Wildwood street. A man was thawing frozen water pipes with live coals when a coal dropped from the shovel. He threw the remaining coals out of the window. They fell in dry grass adjoining the house, and when discovered the fire was eating inte a number of henhouses. Late the same night the men were called for a grass firo night the men were called for a grass fire commonwealth of MASSACHUSETTS.

=Saturday morning, Dec. 30th, about ten-thirty, the Fire Dept. responded to an alarm from Box 64. The fire was at a double dwelling house at 1283 Mass. avebue, owned by Mr. Angus McDonald. It is stated that the fire was caused from a spark from the chimney of an adjoining house, the roof taking fire. The blaze was confined to the roof and was extinguished by the good and effective work from the nuto chemical. The house will probably have to be reshingled. The loss is covered, so we are informed, by an insurance. =The New Year meeting of the Universalist Woman's Mission Circle was held at the attractive home of Mrs. Fran-Clarence E. Ordway, after which she went home. The autos were removed to a garage.

Clarence E. Ordway, after which she cis B. Wadleigh, 16 Swan street, Monday evening. It proved a happy, as well as profitable, occasion to mark "Gentlemen's Rev. F. L. Masseck, the minister of the church, read a paper on John G. Paton, the missionary to the Hebrides,

Violets Carnations

Ornamental House Ferns DAVID DUNGAN. FLORIST DECORATOR

133 MYSTIC STREET,

PROBATE COURT. MIDDLESEX, 88.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Cornelius Wellington, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate, by Charles A. McDonough, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty second day of January, A. D., 1912, at hine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

cause, if any you have, why the same should be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington MINUTE MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, fourteen days at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

6jan3w

A. L. NOURSE.

82 Post Office Building, Arlington, Mass Scalp Treatment, Shampooing, Chiropody, Manicuring, Facial Massage A full line of Pompadours, Hair Goods, etc. ARLINGTON Tel. 786W. Calls by Appointment

> WM. A. PRINCE will deliver at your door

Farm Products, HOME-MADE MINCE MEAT

AND SAUSAGES. BUTTER, CHEESE and EGGS.

TEAS, COFFEES and CANNED GOODS Telephone connection

387 Washington Street, Opposite Franklin St., Boston. We guarantee first-class work at reason

Wood Bros. Express, 669 MASS. AVENUE.

The Arlington Expressmen Telephone 430 .- Call us up.

KEELEY INSTITUTE.

Inebriety Treated as a Disease and Permaner Oures effected. Has stood the test of time an closest scrutiny. For particulars as to terms any other information desired, address the Inst ute at Lexington.

Our Four Cardinal | Principles -

> ABSOLUTE SAFETY CONSERVATISM SQUARE DEALING

COURTEOUS TREATMENT This is insured by a Board of Dire who direct; and give all matters their careful attention.